Progrès relatifs au niveau de stress hydrique Organisation des Nations Unies pour l'alimentation et l'agriculture,ONU-Eau,2023-04-13 L'indicateur mondial de stress hydrique permet d'assurer le suivi du niveau de pression exercé par les activités humaines sur les ressources naturelles en eau douce disponibles et donc de fournir une indication de la durabilité environnementale de l'utilisation des ressources en eau. Un niveau de stress hydrique élevé a des répercussions négatives sur le développement social et économique, ce qui peut donner lieu à des situations de concurrence et de conflits entre les utilisateurs. La mise en place de politiques efficaces de gestion de l'offre et de la demande est nécessaire pour y remédier. Il est indispensable de fixer des critères relatifs aux besoins environnementaux en eaux pour protéger la santé et la résilience des écosystèmes et permettre aux générations futures d'en bénéficier. Cet indicateur traite de la composante environnementale de la cible 6.4. Ce rapport vous permettra d'en savoir plus sur les progrès relatifs au stress hydrique réalisés dans le monde, par pays et par bassin. Cette publication fait partie d'une série de rapports d'évaluation des progrès réalisés au titre des cibles de l'ODD 6, à l'aide des indicateurs mondiaux associés.

Options envisageables pour encourager, orienter et promouvoir la concrétisation des droits des agriculteurs, tels qu'énoncés à l'article 9 du Traité international Organisation des Nations Unies pour l'alimentation et l'agriculture,2024-03-21 Les agriculteurs nourrissent le monde en produisant les aliments dont nous dépendons tous. Étant donné que les agriculteurs sont les promoteurs et les gardiens de la diversité des plantes cultivées sur le terrain, leurs droits à cet égard sont fondamentaux pour maintenir leur rôle central d'assurer la sécurité alimentaire et nutritionnelle – jamais autant qu'à l'ère actuelle marquée par le changement climatique et les autres défis importants auxquels l'humanité est confrontée. Le Traité international sur les ressources phytogénétiques pour l'alimentation et l'agriculture (Traité international) est le premier accord international juridiquement contraignant à reconnaître formellement la contribution des communautés locales et autochtones et des agriculteurs à la conservation et à la mise en valeur des ressources phytogénétiques pour l'alimentation et l'agriculture. L'article 9 du Traité international prévoit la reconnaissance, la concrétisation et la promotion des droits des agriculteurs en ce qui concerne les ressources phytogénétiques pour l'alimentation et l'agriculture. Il est possible de réaliser les droits des agriculteurs grâce à une série de mesures et de pratiques qui peuvent être mises en place afin de protéger, promouvoir et concrétiser ces droits. La promotion et la concrétisation de ces droits permettent aux agriculteurs et aux communautés agricoles de continuer à jouer leur rôle de promoteurs et de gardiens de la diversité des plantes cultivées, et de nourrir le monde pour les générations à venir. Cette publication contient 27 options élaborées par un Groupe d'experts, en s'appuyant sur les données d'expériences des Parties contractantes et des parties prenantes. Ces dernières sont invitées à examiner l'ensemble des options en vue de réaliser les droits des agriculteurs au niveau national, conformément à leurs besoins et priorités et selon qu'il convient.

Multilingüismo: una opción imprescindible María Dolores Asensio Ferreiro,2023-11-27 «Con el inglés ya no basta». El conocimiento de varias lenguas extranjeras cumple un papel cada vez más importante en nuestra sociedad, particularmente en el ámbito laboral. Así, la Unión Europea, desde sus inicios, ha promovido y fomentado la enseñanza y el aprendizaje de otras lenguas añadidas a la propia y a la lengua extranjera internacional por excelencia, el inglés bajo el lema Unidad en la diversidad. Por ello, es esencial preparar al alumnado para un mundo globalizado donde la linguodiversidad y el multilingüismo se han convertido en la norma. Este trabajo realiza un recorrido a través de las principales iniciativas y propuestas de la UE encaminadas a formar una Europa multilingüe, analizando el perfil de los europeos en materia de lenguas extranjeras (LE).

La semántica biopolítica Salinas Araya, Adán,2014-07-31 Hace prácticamente cuarenta años Michel Foucault comenzó a plasmar una serie de investigaciones sobre lo que llamaba "las tecnologías de poder" biopolíticas. Es decir, sobre los modos concretos en los que se ejerce el poder sobre la vida de los individuos. En estos cuarenta años son muchas las investigaciones que han asumido esta perspectiva de análisis y sin embargo apenas se ha tocado el que parece el punto neurálgico de toda la cuestión, que es la relación de estas biopolíticas con el desarrollo del neoliberalismo. En este libro se presentan las investigaciones de Foucault sobre la materia, como si se tratara de un puzzle que se va armando paso a paso, a través de los cursos del Colegio de Francia. De modo que es posible atestiguar el desarrollo de la Investigación de Foucault y la serie de transformaciones que sus ideas sobre la biopolítica van experimentando. Además se presentan de manera detallada los proyectos teóricos que han recepcionado estas ideas sobre el biopoder y la biopolítica. Así, se pasa revista a los Studies in governmentality, a partir de sus primeros trabajos en 1979; al proyecto del Homo sacer, inaugurado por Agamben en 1995; a la trilogía de Imperio inaugurada el 2000 por Hardt y Negri; y también al proyecto de Immunitas que Esposito ha dado comienzo en 2002. De modo que se puede analizar cronológicamente el despliegue de estos discursos y así transitar hasta los últimos textos de estos respectivos proyectos. A estas recepciones de los análisis foucaulteanos, se suma la revisión de algunas perspectivas propuestas por Deleuze entre 1986 y 1990. El libro finaliza revisando algunas señales de una nueva etapa en estos análisis y a la que este libro pretende precisamente aportar.

Dictionnaire Étymologique Roman (DÉRom) 3 Éva Buchi, Wolfgang Schweickard, 2020-05-05 The third volume of the DÉRom contains about forty new lexicographical articles, documenting mainly hereditary Protoromance etyma, but also Gallic borrowings. The theoretical section gathers chapters discussing questions such as the Idioromance infrastructure of the DÉRom, polysemy, synonymy, and the substrates of Protoromance.

Didactique du français sur objectifs spécifiques Dominique Markey , Saskia Kindt , 2016-09-02 « Ce recueil s'adresse aussi bien aux chercheurs qu'aux enseignants de l'enseignement supérieur, voire aux formateurs en entreprise. Il souhaite éclairer, d'une part, les transformations méthodologiques actuelles dans la recherche sur l'enseignement/apprentissage du français sur objectifs spécifiques (FOS). Il vise à présenter, d'autre part, des pratiques didactiques exemplaires du FOS fondées sur la recherche appliquée ainsi que sur des données probantes. Si le FOS englobe toutes les émanations du français spécialisé ou de spécialité et qu'il s'applique à tous les secteurs socioprofessionnels, les contributions de cet ouvrage concernent majoritairement les grands classiques: le français économique et des affaires, le français juridique et le français du tourisme. S'y ajoute le français de la médiation civile, un créneau particulièrement pertinent dans la société contemporaine de plus en plus judiciarisée. Aboutissement d'un long processus d'examen à double insu des pairs, cet ouvrage se veut de haute qualité scientifique. Il veut également inciter la communauté scientifique francophone à poursuivre les recherches dans le domaine du FOS en abordant d'autres aspects didactiques et en élaborant d'autres modèles novateurs. »--

Seguridad y asuntos internacionales Alberto Lozano Vázquez, Abelardo Rodríguez Sumano, 2020-12-23 Impresionante.

Alberto Lozano y Abelardo Rodríguez Sumano lograron que 94 autores escribieran 80 capítulos en esta obra ambiciosa e imprescindible. Hace unas décadas la seguridad era un tema marginal en el trabajo académico. En la actualidad es indispensable un trabajo de este tipo para acercarse a la enorme complejidad de un asunto que obsesiona –justificadamente– a México y el mundo. SERGIO AGUAYO El Colegio de México Excelente contribución que permite entender desde diversas perspectivas teóricas y metodológicas los principales temas y problemas que tiene la seguridad. Este libro constituye uno de los primeros volúmenes con perspectiva regional y global, y se convierte en un aporte sustantivo para el desarrollo de una disciplina emergente en América Latina, como lo son las Relaciones Internacionales. La seguridad está en el centro de las agendas nacionales, regionales y globales, y esta obra presenta un esfuerzo exitoso para abrir un espacio de debate con la participación de múltiples especialistas y analistas de primer nivel. Sin duda, un texto que se convertirá en clave para estudiantes, profesores y profesionales en la temática. LUCÍA DAMMERT Universidad de Santiago de Chile Este volumen, coordinado por los destacados investigadores Alberto Lozano Vázquez y Abelardo Rodríguez Sumano, reúne a un grupo extraordinario y diverso de expertos, tanto académicos como funcionarios públicos, para examinar los desafíos y oportunidades de la seguridad y de las Relaciones Internacionales en el contexto inédito del comienzo de la tercera década del siglo xxi. Su alcance analítico y práctico es notable, con una perspectiva profundamente enraizada en México y América Latina, pero también en un diálogo fructífero con otras regiones del mundo. En un tiempo en que el flujo de ideas, bienes, tecnologías, finanzas, personas –y también de amenazas y enfermedades– sobrepasa las fronteras, este libro será de gran utilidad para lectores en diversos ámbitos de la sociedad, ayudando a forjar nuevos caminos hacia el futuro. MATTHEW CARNES, S.J. Associate Professor, Department of Government & Edmund A. Walsh School of Foreign Service. Director, Center for Latin American Studies. Georgetown University

Food System Sustainability Catherine Esnouf, Marie Russel, Nicolas Bricas, 2013-04-25 As western-style food systems extend further around the world, food sustainability is becoming an increasingly important issue. Such systems are not sustainable in terms of their consumption of resources, their impact on ecosystems or their effect on health and social inequality. From 2009 to 2011, the duALIne project, led by INRA and CIRAD, assembled a team of experts to investigate food systems downstream of the farm, from the farm gate, to consumption and the disposal of waste. Representing a diverse range of backgrounds spanning academia and the public and private sectors, the project aimed to review the international literature and identify major gaps in our knowledge. This book brings together its key conclusions and insights, presenting state-of-the-art research in food sustainability and identifying priority areas for further study. It will provide a valuable resource for researchers, decision-makers and stakeholders in the food industry.

Le recyclage des résidus organiques Hélène Jarousseau, Sabine Houot, Jean-Marie Paillat, Hervé Saint-Macary, 2016-12-12 Le recyclage des déchets organiques peut être considéré comme une pratique agroécologique visant l'amélioration de la fertilité des sols, la réduction des impacts environnementaux et une économie circulaire. Cet ouvrage permet de comprendre les processus biogéochimiques impliqués dans ce recyclage et les usages des produits résiduels organiques. Il propose des solutions adaptées à différents contextes économiques, sociaux et culturels, au Nord comme au Sud.

Extradition and Political Crimes Sibel Top, 2025-02-17 This book examines the evolution and current application of the political offence exception clause to extradition in Europe. The long-standing academic exploration of terrorism has recently given way to renewed interest in the political offence exception to extradition, prompted by recent events that signal a democratic downturn globally. Despite the significant curtailment – and, in some cases, the complete abolition – of the political offence exception to extradition in Europe, certain European states continue to quietly implement this exception to deny extradition requests. This work studies the development of the political offence exception in Europe by narrowing its focus from an international perspective to the European context, specifically examining the Council of Europe and the European Union, before zeroing in on the Catalan independence crisis, which offers a particularly valuable case for analysing the application of the political offence exception in the European context. By providing a detailed examination of the evolving protections for political offenders within European legal frameworks, the text updates the long overdue academic knowledge on the matter. It is therefore an essential resource for anyone interested in European criminal law and extradition, in particular. It will also be of interest to researchers, academics, and policy-makers working in the areas of criminal law, human rights law, legal theory, criminology, and political science.

Manual of Grammatical Interfaces in Romance Susann Fischer, Christoph Gabriel, 2016-09-12 Different components of grammar interact in non-trivial ways. It has been under debate what the actual range of interaction is and how we can most appropriately represent this in grammatical theory. The volume provides a general overview of various topics in the linguistics of Romance languages by examining them through the interaction of grammatical components and functions as a state-of-the-art report, but at the same time as a manual of Romance languages.

Socio-Spatial Dynamics in Mediterranean Europe José María Ferial-Toribio, Ricardo Iglesias-Pascual, Federico Benassi, 2024-05-21 This book analyses the most recent socio-territorial trends that are developing in the Spanish metropolitan space. The first part focuses on the most recent metropolitan dynamics and demographic changes in Southern Europe. The second part discusses the most important processes in metropolitan areas: the problems of increasing social and residential vulnerability and the problems of diversity management. The third part analyses some concrete cases of the main changes and complexity in the spatial dynamics of metropolitan areas in Southern Europe. Finally, the fourth and last part provides an overview on the instruments and the resources put in place by some Southern European cities for the development of governance and citizen participation as an instrument of reaction to the social, economic and COVID crisis. By discussing the main changes and uncertainties derived from the social scenarios after the pandemic, the dynamics of social dualisation of the city, as well as the necessary instruments for its analysis and the main challenges in urban governance with special attention of Southern European context, this book provides an interesting read for spatial demographers, human geographers, social scientists and spatial planners.

2016 SITUATION DES FORÊTS DU MONDE Food and Agriculture Organization of the United Nations, 2018-04-16

Les nationalismes dans l'Espagne contemporaine (1975-2011) Alicia Fernández García, Mathieu Petithomme, 2012-11-14

Comment les nationalismes, qu'ils émanent des partis nationaux ou des formations basques, catalanes et galiciennes, ont-ils repensé la « nation » espagnole depuis la transition démocratique ? Alliant l'histoire contemporaine et la science politique, ce livre retrace la réémergence des nationalismes « périphériques » et étudie leurs idéologies en Catalogne, au Pays basque et dans d'autres communautés autonomes depuis la mort de Franco en 1975. Il souligne aussi les stratégies des partis nationaux dominants, de droite comme de gauche, pour s'adapter à l'essor des revendications nationalistes et régionalistes dans le cadre démocratique de l'État des autonomies. Réunissant les meilleurs spécialistes français et espagnols, l'ouvrage constitue un outil de référence, à la fois accessible et érudit, sur les trajectoires nationalistes dans l'Espagne contemporaine. Alicia Fernández García est professeur certifié d'espagnol, anthropologue et chercheuse en civilisation hispanique contemporaine à l'université de Nice Sophia-Antipolis. Mathieu Petithomme est maître de conférences en science politique à l'IUT de Besançon.
