Modern Scottish Diaspora Murray Stewart Leith, 2014-07-21 Explores the connectedness of the diaspora to the homeland from a variety of different perspectives This book explores a range of different perspectives on the Scottish diaspora, reflecting a growing interest in the subject from academics, politicians and policy makers and coinciding with Scotland's second year of homecoming in 2014. The Scottish Government has actively developed a diaspora strategy, not least in order to encourage 'roots tourism', as those individuals of Scots descent come back to visit their 'homeland' diaspora. Key Features Examines the importance of links within the Scottish diaspora for Scots both at home and abroad. Multi-disciplinary perspectives from literature to sport Of interest to policy makers, genealogists, tourism bodies, politicians and general public The Scots form one of the world's largest diasporas, with around 30 million people worldwide claiming a Scottish ancestry. There are few countries around the globe without a Caledonian Society, a Burns Club, a Scottish country dance society, or similar organisation. The diaspora is therefore of interest to politicians, to public policy makers and to Scottish business; as well as to those working in the media, in sport, in literature and in music.
