Modernización y territorialización en Guatemala David Rozotto,2018-07-05 Este libro indaga en una desatendida obra cuyo estudio ofrece una perspectiva original sobre un período nacional de proyección continental: las novelas criollistas del escritor guatemalteco Virgilio Rodríguez Macal. En sus novelas Carazamba (1953), Jinayá (1956) y Guayacán (1962), el escritor adopta la estética criollista para postular una esencia autóctona guatemalteca fundamentada en el discurso de narradores que fungen de intérpretes de esa esencia gracias a un saber científico derivado de disciplinas como la antropología, la historiografía y la sociología. El análisis de esas obras demuestra que el escritor, inscripto en la tradición letrada latinoamericana de compromiso con la construcción de la nación, postula mundos narrativos que constituyen programas de integración nacional.
