Maya Angelou, born Marguerite Annie Johnson on April 4, 1928, in St. Louis, Missouri, was an extraordinary American poet, memoirist, actress, and civil rights activist. QUOTES SAMPLES: When someone shows you who they are, believe them the first time. The truth is, no one of us can be free until everybody is free. We may encounter many defeats but we must not be defeated. You are the sum total of everything you've ever seen, heard, eaten, smelled, been told, forgot - it's all there. Everything influences each of us, and because of that I try to make sure that my experiences are positive. Courage is the most important of all the virtues, because without courage you can't practice any other virtue consistently. You can practice any virtue erratically, but nothing consistently without courage. If you have only one smile in you give it to the people you love.

Fierce Love Susan Scott,2022-01-11 Grow your relationship through conversations that make a difference. New York Times bestselling author Susan Scott guides couples through eight must-have conversations to create a fierce love that stands the test of time and grows stronger over the years. Often in our romantic relationships, we long for deep connection, but we don't know how to communicate well and sometimes withhold what we're really thinking and feeling. This can lead to fighting, resentment, or, worse, complacency--where you are just going through the motions, more like roommates than two people in love. As Susan writes, It's as if we've pulled off our own wings. As couples, we don't stop to think how important our conversations are. And we certainly don't understand that what we talk about and how we talk about it determine whether our relationships will thrive, flatline, or fail. In Fierce Love, New York Times bestselling author Susan Scott guides couples through eight must-have conversations that lead to deep connection and lasting commitment. Through the use of true stories and hands-on exercises, Susan helps us understand that the conversation is the relationship; identify and dispel five relationship myths that mislead and derail us; learn eight conversations that are critical to enriching relationships; and stop fighting or ignoring issues and start connecting in a deep and meaningful way. After a season where many relationships were tested and tried, where some relationships thrived and others have exposed cracks couples didn't even realize were there, or realized but didn't acknowledge, now is the best time to learn to communicate well. By having honest, compelling conversations with our partners, we can foster true connection and a fierce love that will withstand the test of time and grow stronger over the years.

QUOTES SAMPLES: The only way to make sense out of change is to plunge into it, move with it, and join the dance. To have faith is to trust yourself to the water. When you swim you don't grab hold of the water, because if you do you will sink and drown. Instead you relax, and float. I owe my solitude to other people. No work or love will flourish out of guilt, fear, or hollowness of heart, just as no valid plans for the future can be made by those who have no capacity for living now. Never pretend to a love which you do not actually feel, for love is not ours to command. Unless one is able to live fully in the present, the future is a hoax.

free fools from the chains they revere. God gave us the gift of life; it is up to us to give ourselves the gift of living well. Every man is guilty of all the good he did not do. QUOTES SAMPLES: There is only one corner of the universe you can be certain of improving, and that's your own self. After silence, that which comes nearest to expressing the inexpressible is music. Experience is not what happens to you; it's what you do with what happens to you. It is a bit embarrassing to have been concerned with the human problem all one's life and find at the end that one has no more to offer by way of advice than 'try to be a little kinder.' The more powerful and original a mind, the more it will incline towards the religion of solitude.

He who is not courageous enough to take risks will accomplish nothing in life. It isn't the mountains ahead to climb that wear you out; it's the pebble in your shoe. I am the greatest, I said that even before I knew I was. It's the repetition of affirmations that leads to belief. And once that belief becomes a deep conviction, things begin to happen. The man who has no imagination has no wings.

all your eggs in one basket and then watch that basket. No man will make a great leader who wants to do it all himself or get all the credit for doing it. There is little success where there is little laughter. People who are unable to motivate themselves must be content with mediocrity, no matter how impressive their other talents. The first man gets the oyster, the second man gets the shell. All honor's wounds are self-inflicted.

QUOTES SAMPLES: If you're going through hell, keep going. The best argument against democracy is a five-minute conversation with the average voter.
