Pinpricks in the Curtain Isabella Flinn, 2014-05-01 The sound of a massive drum was the first thing I noticed, when Juliet and I stepped out of the compact car. Each time the confident student struck the drum, the students that were lined up in neat rows facing him would expertly stand at attention then relax into the at-ease stance. With their little heads locked in position to face forward, only their curious eyes darted to appraise us, as we walked past them in flowing salwars toward their principal who stood waiting to greet us. We were the invited guests to teach in their school. And it was very apparent by the radiant smiles on the poised faces of these well-mannered children that this was going to be a wonderful experience we would never forget. I glanced at Juliet and realized that she, too, was barely containing her own enthusiasm, and why not? What seventeen-year-old American girl gets to teach alongside her mother in India? Yes, India was our home for the next few weeks, and we were keenly aware with the sights, smells, and sounds that home would be different than what we were accustomed to. However, one blaring similarity remained: children are precious in His sight no matter which half of the globe they call home. Our goal was to convey that pivotal message to each student we had the privilege of serving here in this unfamiliar part of the world.

Blessings, 2012-06 This Easy Piano arrangement of Laura Story's Blessings is easier to play than the original edition. Arranged by Carol Tornquist in the key of C major (rather than the album key of B major), it's easier to sight read and play---plus, the melody is played by the right hand, making it an effective piano solo if a vocalist isn't present.

Musical Courier and Review of Recorded Music, 1920

Blessings Laura Mixon Story, 2012-06-01 The beautiful piano-based ballad Blessings is among today's most sought-after Contemporary Christian sheet music titles. With this licensed edition, pianists and vocalists can play and sing one of the most memorable worship songs of our time. This piano/vocal/guitar edition is published in the same key as Laura Story's award-winning recording (B Major), and its piano arrangement faithfully reflects the accompaniment that's heard on the album. The vocal melody is notated on its own staff, along with complete lyrics and basic chord fingering grids for optional guitar accompaniment.

Black Diamond Queens Maureen Mahon,2020-10-09 African American women have played a pivotal part in rock and roll—from laying its foundations and singing chart-topping hits to influencing some of the genre's most iconic acts. Despite this, black women's importance to the music's history has been diminished by narratives of rock as a mostly white male enterprise. In Black Diamond Queens, Maureen Mahon draws on recordings, press coverage, archival materials, and interviews to document the history of African American women in rock and roll between the 1950s and the 1980s. Mahon details the musical contributions and cultural impact of Big Mama Thornton, LaVern Baker, Betty Davis, Tina Turner, Merry Clayton, Labelle, the Shirelles, and others, demonstrating how dominant views of gender, race, sexuality, and genre affected their careers. By uncovering this hidden history of black women in rock and roll, Mahon reveals a powerful sonic legacy that continues to reverberate into the twenty-first century.
