Introducción al análisis económico y conductual del Derecho procesal Fiorenza, Alejandro Alberto, 2023-12-12 En este libro, de tinte divulgativo, se introduce al lector en dos métodos de estudio del derecho: uno que ya tiene cierto andar, como es el caso del análisis económico del derecho (AED); y otro de factura más reciente, que es el análisis conductual del derecho (ACD). Pero ello no es todo, porque ese caudal de herramientas conceptuales y multidisciplinarias se vuelca -luego- al ámbito específico del derecho procesal, dando nacimiento, así, a lo que se ha dado en llamar análisis económico y conductual del derecho procesal (AECDP). A partir de este último se ofrece un nuevo punto de vista desde el cual analizar el derecho procesal, que se centra en la conducta que es observada por todos los que intervienen en un procedimiento judicial, sea como partes, como jueces, e incluso como terceros. Lo que resulta de suma importancia, porque es aquélla, precisamente, la que se busca regular a través de las normas procesales. Y porque no debe olvidarse que el derecho, a final de cuentas, pretende una sola y única cosa: moldear el comportamiento humano, esto es, regular, incentivar e impulsar a los individuos para que actúen de cierta manera y no de otra.

Anuario iberoamericano de regulación. Vol. III, regulación: claves del futuro Varios Autores, 2024-11-12 El Anuario Iberoamericano de Regulación recoge en su tercer volumen investigaciones de expertos en regulación que aceptaron la invitación de la Asociación Iberoamericana de Regulación (Asier) y la Universidad Externado de Colombia a presentar análisis jurídicos de los principales sectores en sus países, una región o a escala global. Este tercer volumen refleja la rigurosidad académica, la responsabilidad social, la innovación y el interés en generar valor agregado a la sociedad. La obra irradia el libre pensamiento y profundo conocimiento de los autores en aspectos jurídicos, técnicos y económicos de la regulación. Este Anuario contiene las reflexiones de un elenco de investigadores y profesionales del Derecho administrativo comprometidos con la mejora regulatoria en Iberoamérica, que aúnan sus experiencias, propuestas y reflexiones de manera colectiva y periódica en la Asier. Esas reflexiones son recogidas anualmente en una obra conjunta, editada por la Universidad Externado de Colombia, con un hilo conductor transversal que sirve de enfoque para tratar los grandes temas clásicos de la regulación: regulación y cumplimiento, potestades administrativas, energía, medio ambiente, contratos, tecnologías disruptivas y participación.

La Unión Europea y la CELAC , La presente obra colectiva profundiza en el entramado histórico, cultural, económico y político que ha definido el vínculo entre la Unión Europea y la CELAC a lo largo de los años. Ello, a través de un examen en profundidad de las transformaciones que han afectado tanto a Europa, con el estallido de crisis económicas, sanitarias y geopolíticas que han puesto en jaque al proyecto comunitario; como a América Latina, donde la fragmentación y la falta de consenso han generado una inviabilidad de sus procesos de integración. Asimismo, el monográfico propone una agenda de trabajo que abarca la reestructuración legislativa, la cooperación en materia de cambio climático, la mayor inversión en infraestructuras o la promoción de políticas exclusivas, entre otras ideas. Subrayando la urgencia de establecer un marco de diálogo efectivo y continuo, cuya colaboración estrecha permita a ambas regiones responder de manera conjunta a las crisis y desafíos de un mundo cada vez más globalizado. En definitiva, nos hallamos ante un proyecto que invita a repensar y renovar las relaciones entre la Unión Europea y la CELAC, ofreciendo una visión amplia y profunda de los procesos de integración y de las estrategias necesarias para construir un futuro mejor. Un aporte imprescindible para académicos, legisladores y profesionales comprometidos con la construcción de alianzas estratégicas, en un contexto global dinámico y en constante transformación.
