Paintings and Drawings by Francisco Goya in the Collection of the Hispanic Society of America Hispanic Society of America,William E. B. Starkweather,1916

Goya Janis A. Tomlinson,2002-03-11 Francisco Goya y Lucientes (1746-1828) created magnificent paintings, tapestry designs, prints, and drawings over the course of his long and productive career. Women frequently appeared as the subjects of Goya's works, from his brilliantly painted cartoons for the Royal Tapestry Factory to his stunning portraits of some of the most powerful women in Madrid. This groundbreaking book is the first to examine the representations of women within Goya's multifaceted art, and in so doing, it sheds new light on the evolution of his artistic creativity as well as on the roles assumed by women in late eighteenth- and early nineteenth-century Spain. Many of Goya's most famous works are featured and explicated in this beautifully designed and produced book. The artist's famous tapestry cartoons are included, along with the tapestries woven after them for the royal palaces of the Prado and the Escorial. Goya's infamous Naked Maja and Clothed Maja are also highlighted, with a discussion on whether these works were painted at the same time and how they might have originally hung in relation to one another. Focus is also placed on Goya's more experimental prints and drawings, in which the artist depicted women alternatively as targets of satire, of sympathy, or of admiration. Essays by eminent authorities provide a historical and cultural context for Goya's work, including a discussion on the significance of fashion and dress during the period. The resultant volume is surely to be treasured by all who admire Goya's art and by those who are interested in women's issues of his time.

Sorolla o la pintura como felicidad Carlos Reyero,2023-02-09 El relato se ha concebido como una reflexión distendida y delicadamente irónica sobre los tópicos que han envuelto de felicidad a Sorolla, hasta negar cualquier sombra. La luz levanta el ánimo. No hay recurso más eficiente que iluminarlo todo para olvidarse de que no hay nada oculto de lo que preocuparse. Sorolla es recordado como un triunfador que pintaba gentes felices en lugares maravillosos. El arte es una extraordinaria ilusión. No pretendamos que también sea real. En la vida no se puede tener todo.
