They did not stop at Eboli Karin Priem, Giovanna Hendel, Carole Naggar, 2020-02-10 The analysis of UNESCO's audio-visual archives for their digitization has brought to light a forgotten album of 38 contact sheets and accompanying texts by Magnum photographer, David "Chim" Seymour - a reportage made in 1950 for UNESCO on the fight against illiteracy in Italy's southern region of Calabria. A number of his photographs appeared in the March 1952 issue of UNESCO Courier in an article written by Carlo Levi, who had gained worldwide fame with his novel Christ Stopped at Eboli (1945). L'analyse des archives audio-visuelles de l'UNESCO en vue de leur numérisation a permis de découvrir un album oublié comprenant 38 planches-contact et des textes d'accompagnement du photographe de Magnum David « Chim » Seymour - un reportage réalisé en 1950 pour l'UNESCO sur la bataille contre l'analphabétisme en Calabre, une région du sud de l'Italie. Un certain nombre de ses photographies ont été publiées dans le numéro de mars 1952 du Courier de l'UNESCO avec un article de Carlo Levi, dont le roman Le Christ s'est arrêté à Eboli (1945) lui avait valu une renommée internationale

Chapitre 1 - Missions spatiales passées, en cours et à venir Philippe DURAND, Stéphane MAY, 2024-11-15 Afin de donner un aperçu des images disponibles auprès des agences spatiales et de leurs principales caractéristiques, ce chapitre décrit différentes missions spatiales contenant des données pertinentes pour la mesure des mouvements du sol. Il aborde certains paramètres spécifiques des systèmes de radar à synthèse d'ouverture (SAR) et des systèmes d'imagerie optiques. Le chapitre présente également les missions spatiales qui ont été ou sont utilisées pour calculer les champs de déplacement par interférométrie radar (InSAR) ou par corrélation d'images optiques ou radar. L'amélioration des techniques d'imagerie, la mise à disposition gratuite des données de certaines missions et la programmation de nouvelles missions spatiales (comme NISAR ou ROSE-L) sont autant d'atouts décisifs pour les scientifiques afin d'observer toujours plus précisément les déplacements de la surface terrestre. Mots-clés : missions spatiales, imagerie optique, imagerie radar (SAR), Interférométrie radar (InSAR), Télédétection. DOI : 10.51926/ISTE.9083.ch1

Rapport d'information sur les chambres consulaires, leurs missions et leurs financements Monique Rabin, Catherine Vautrin, Mission d'évaluation et de contrôle, commission des finances, 2015-09-16 Les réseaux consulaires ont connu de nombreuses réformes au cours de la dernière décennie initiées, pour certaines, par les réseaux eux-mêmes de manière à suivre l'évolution des besoins de leurs ressortissants et, pour d'autres, à la suite de dispositions législatives touchant à leur gouvernance et à leur financement. Dans ce contexte, Monique Rabin et Catherine Vautrin, rapporteuses de la Mission d'évaluation et de contrôle, ont souhaité présenter une situation actualisée des trois réseaux consulaires (soit les chambres de commerce et d'industrie - CCI, les chambres des métiers et de l'artisanat - CMA et les chambres d'agriculture - CA). Pour chacun d'entre eux, le rapport aborde d'une part les réformes en cours en matière de gouvernance et, d'autre part, l'adéquation de leur financement aux missions qui leur sont confiées.

Rapport d'information sur la mise en œuvre des missions de la Caisse nationale de solidarité pour l'autonomie

Martine Carrillon-Couvreur, 2015-01-21 Dix ans après la création de la Caisse nationale de solidarité pour l'autonomie (CNSA), la mission d'évaluation et de contrôle des lois de financement de la sécurité sociale (MECSS) a souhaité réaliser un bilan de l'action de cet organisme sui generis. Elle a constaté que la CNSA s'était progressivement imposée au sein du paysage médico-social pour devenir un acteur incontournable des politiques de compensation de la perte d'autonomie. L'action de la CNSA est néanmoins entravée par un certain nombre d'obstacles, qui ne lui permettent pas d'accomplir pleinement les nombreuses missions qui lui ont été confiées par le législateur. Parmi ces difficultés, des disparités subsistent sur l'ensemble du territoire, tant en matière d'offre collective dans les établissements et services médico-sociaux que s'agissant de la compensation individuelle de la perte d'autonomie. L'existence de carences dans la connaissance des besoins comme dans celle des coûts des établissements et services, ainsi que le retard considérable pris en matière de systèmes d'information dans le secteur médico-social nuisent à la qualité des données dont dispose la CNSA. L'accueil et l'accompagnement des personnes handicapées et des personnes âgées dépendantes se heurte par ailleurs au cloisonnement des politiques qui les concernent respectivement. Forte de ce constat, la MECSS a formulé 24 préconisations destinées à renforcer la CNSA. Elle propose en particulier de lui donner les moyens de mener une véritable action en faveur de la répartition équitable des ressources sur le territoire national et d'améliorer la connaissance des besoins et des coûts. Différentes mesures doivent également permettre de favoriser le décroisement des politiques et la prise en compte du « projet de vie », au service de la construction d'une véritable politique de l'autonomie.

perspective comparative Nadine Méouchy, Peter Sluglett, 2004-01-01 This collection represents the first large scale attempt to discuss the Middle Eastern mandates as a totality. It compares the application and effects of this very specific form of late colonialism from a variety of different disciplinary perspectives, including anthropology, architecture, archival conservation, economics, history, law and sociology. It contains analyses at both micro and macro levels, including specific instances of revolt or collaboration, studies of particular individuals, of professional groups and their contributions to "nation-building," comparisons between the various political and cultural policies of the mandatory powers, and the formation and practice of le savoir colonial by contemporary ethnographers, officials, physicians and teachers. The volume will be of interest to historians of imperialism and of the twentieth century Middle East.
