Soul Notes is spoken word poetry. A collection of notes and poetry about love, pain, doubts, laughing, development and chaos. Sometimes, a note expresses more than 100 words - a note that's deeply moved, scrutinized, and reflects. Soul Notes is an echo, asking you to dance.

Raabta Sehrish Fatima, "This Anthology will dazzle you all to fascinating Connections" Humans are social creatures. We crave connection with fellow humans and need warmth, love and care to thrive. That's why connection becomes pivotal to the success of human relationships. Humans are biologically, cognitively, physically and spiritually wired with each other. Much like the relationship we have with ourselves, our relationship with others is conducive to happiness and fulfillment, providing meaning and purpose in the everyday. In an increasingly isolated and digitally engaged world, we all need real connection more than ever, and the profound impact of both human & social connectivity shouldn't be overlooked. Human connection brings complex values to our lives: relationships give us a sense of belonging in the group, a sense of identity in contrast to others in that group and reason not to feel lonely. "Raabta" means connection. Connection is an emotion that decides and shapes so much of who we are and what we do, every day. The unbounded connection which one can have with anything or anyone it can be a person, thing or a place. We all have connection and we all need connection. A connection has no rules and there is no expectation of tomorrow. There is no agreement or commitment. You don't have to speak. They don't ever have to stay alive. It's just like your heart got touched in a blink. The most important thing people need to heal, succeed and thrive is human connection, a sense of belonging, a community of support. For human connection creates incredible resilience. This book 'Raabta' is a marvelous and requisite imagination of authors around the globe, who have penned their emotions and expressed them through fascinating stories, poetry and articles. This book constitutes the authors' real connection to human relationships that take many forms but the most intense, most pleasurable and most painful are those relationships with family, friends and loved ones. This book becomes more vital in the present times as we know that in a world full of people, what can be more beautiful than knowing how to form healthy relationships and establish deeper human connections with those around us. "Raabta" or Connections are the energy that exists between people when they feel seen, heard, and valued; and when they derive sustenance and strength from the relationship. This book is a product of creative writer's imaginative skill; subjectivity and flair for writing that make readers to comprehend different dimensions of human relationships.

Reader's Digest Use Your Words Reader's Digest, 2019-02-05 Want to feel smarter? Want to have the perfect quip at the tip of your tongue? Use Your Words combines Word Power Quizzes and Quotable Quotes from Reader's Digest, America's Most Popular Magazine so you can do just that! Use Your Words is part word quiz book and part quote book, combined together in themed sections. It will be a combination of 2 of our most popular columns in Reader's Digest Magazine—Word Power and Quotable Quotes. Quotable Quotes, as it appears today, first ran in January 1934. It was preceded by similar quote columns, including Remarkable Remarks, which ran in the first ever issue of Reader's Digest in February 1922, and Significant Sayings, which ran in June 1922. These first columns featured the great minds of the day, including Herbert Hoover (before he became president), Lady Astor, and John D. Rockefeller. The quotes were, and continue to be, collected from a variety of books, speeches, journals, and articles. We've quoted both living and dead people. The column hasn't changed much, except for the art. It began as a one-page list of quotes and continues to be a one-page list of quotes. Quotable Quotes is second to Laughter the Best Medicine in column popularity. Word Power first ran in January 1945—January 2020 will mark 75 years. Word Power's creator, Wilfred Funk, was a poet and lexicographer—his family was the “Funk” of the reference publisher Funk & Wagnalls. He presented his quiz idea to Dewitt Wallace in 1944. Wilfred's son Peter Funk wrote the column from the 1960s to the 1990s. Current writers are a married couple who are well-known in the crossword/puzzle world: <https://www.theatlantic.com/past/docs/unbound/wordgame/crbio.htm> The column hasn't changed much—it has 15 words now instead of 20. It has themed columns (car words, Italian words) rather than words based on RD. It has a sidebar that goes in-depth on something related to the theme. Word Power is our 3rd most popular column in the magazine.
