Down Life'S Trail D. Russell Walker, 2015-02-21 For more years than most of today's population could possibly recall, I had been writing poems about my family, my own true adventure stories, and just about anything of interest to me, which has been just about anything! I had catalogued, shelved, boxed, and stored material throughout the years all the while that I had been experiencing the many facets of my more varied than some life. From the time that I was a little farm kid, the workings of nature and its wild faces had held intrigue to my mind. Consequently, by the time that I became old and bold enough to begin my own quest of adventure, I just plainly let it happen. Any opportunity to explore life and of things not yet known to me became open season for my whims. In those early years, I had managed to scribble down numerous discoveries that evolved as I waded through life's happenings. Eventually, I had accumulated many written utterances and at first kept them in piles and eventually files. Through the urgings of family and friends, it has come to the point of sharing my writings of adventurous ramblings with others. But where should I start? The grab bag of writings that I have dealt from for this first widely published volume of mine, which I had decided to name Down Life's Trail, for in many ways, it does reflect selections written by myself along the bumpy road of life. At the age of twenty-two, I had started out on my own after schooling for the profession as a photographer. This required traveling many miles, first within Maine then to other locations across the country, and involving aerial photos along with all others. I had recorded and kept records of many of the special locations that I had flown over or photographed, both in writings and photos. Now has come the time for me to pursue the publishing of some of my collections. I had promised to my local audience that had been reading my work over the years that I would indeed take a shot at publishing a book of poetry. My decision (right or wrong) is now to begin my offerings with this aptly named volume of Down Life's Trail, for the following has been derived from short story poems written as I was tripping along life's trail. Hopefully, you will read and enjoy the enclosed pages that have been randomly selected from the far reaching trail of my life.

Declining, Yet Shining Richard L. Morgan, 2009-04-01 This book shows how the Bible offers timeless wisdom for any age, but has special guidance for older people. Author Richard Morgan has chosen 120 Scripture readings, in tribute to Moses--recorded as living one hundred and twenty years when he died--and written a series of reflections on Bible characters whose experience of aging speaks across the centuries to us today. Author Jane Marie Thibault asks the question, Would you accept the gift of 120 years with joy and gratitude, or would you respond according to your circumstances? . . . For the first time in the history of humankind many of us may have the opportunity to live that long. We can reasonably expect that we will soon accept the gift of 120 years. Is this good news or bad news for you? Medical science has extended our years and given us longevity, but medical science cannot give us meaning for these years. The meditations in this book offer stories of older Biblical men and women, like Abraham and Sarah, Elizabeth and Zechariah, Simeon and Ann, who offer wisdom on how to find meaning in these later years. Morgan's book would be good reading for older adults and those who have not yet had to face the challenges of the later years. Its wisdom offers the prayer, May you die young at a very old age.

Drop the Fig Leaf Everest Bryce,2013-04-03 We were not designed to live in this world of deception, lust, judgment, and greed. We were made for freedom, adventure, the infinite, to live freely, openly, honestly and uninhibited. Given the reality of life on earth, leaving ourselves too vulnerable, too exposed to all the selfishness and greed is simply not a viable survival option. All of us eventually have to put up our guard and run for cover. We close ourselves in, put up walls and when that happens, we cover up much of our intended greatness. These coverings we feel forced to place over our hearts, minds, spirits and bodies are the Fig Leaves of our lives. Drop the Fig Leaf takes a very straightforward look at these fig leaves, what lies behind them, how did they get there and most importantly, how to remove them. We will look at whats at stake, whats on the other side of the fig-leaves, what was intended for us all along, and how we can fight back and ultimately win the greatest battle of our lives. Get ready for an exhilarating, eye opening and life changing journey - The battle for our original and natural freedom.

Commit to Change Neva Welsh,2020-02-20 Commit to Change highlights common traps that we all face that override peace, including insecurity, shame, disappointment, anger, rejection, and loneliness. Neva Welsh, a longtime registered nurse active in social and church activities, examines how to overcome unacceptable patterns to successfully navigate change. She recognizes however, that finding peace and a new identity is not easy. But by sharing real-life experiences, dreams, humor, and personal truths with candor, she helps you: examine and overcome human frailties, such as pain, emptiness, guilt, and addictions; realize and accept that ignoring issues that need resolution will rob us of energy, joy, and contentment; embrace your true identity and guide others through rough times to victory. The author also makes the case that we are more alike than we realize - whether we are rich or poor, young or old, educated or illiterate, a prisoner of a penal system or a prisoner of the soul. Regardless of who we are, we can all make progress by recognizing our faults and making better choices. By employing the metaphor of birth, this life-changing guide will help you escape what's been dragging you down so you can move toward freedom.

Life Manual- How to Live Life AiR - Atman in Ravi, 2020-10-21 We all know how to use and make the most of our gadgets and gizmos because we read the Operating Manual of each device or appliance that we buy. Unfortunately, we have not read the Operating Manual of Life. We don't realize what Life is all about, and before we know it, life is over. The 'Troubleshooting Guide' and 'FAQs, Frequently Asked Questions' at the end of the book not only make for an interesting read, but also comprehensively address challenges we all face. We have read so many Manuals, and we have become experts in operating the gadgets in our life. Now, it's time to read a Manual about Life itself. Discover how to live Life!

The Child Soldiers E Braveheart, 2023-03-31 Wherever you're from, from whatever background or class, no one knows what goes on behind closed doors. The trauma and abuse I was brought up with from a young child has made me the person that I am today. It is like a branding iron put onto a developing mind. The scars you cannot see but dictate my every moment, others of you out there will know exactly what I mean. I hold no shame for what was done to me as a child. It has certainly given me more tolerance for other's situations because of it. It has certainly made me more understanding. For all my adult life, I have suffered from mental health issues as a result. This itself has made me more empathetic with others. All these poems come from deep within. Some written from very dark places, others from hope and forgiveness, I've written many poems when I've had no one to talk to. Writing has always been there for me - it has always been my friend. Forgive those that hurt you for it will only harm you. Love and good luck Braveheart.

As a teenager he left his parents' strained marriage behind and settled down to permanent bachelorhood. Now he can't wrest his thoughts from Dora's pretty face. Can they find a solution together before disaster strikes the mill and their relationship?

My Bedroom's Halo Christopher W. King, 2016-05-04 This book is about a boy who is not older than six who explores a world that is pure hell. Where maggots and worms rain down from the sky; meanwhile, he hears flies and bugs buzzing their wings as maggots land in his hair. The Bedrooms Halo is made up of multiple realms that change and alter. Where nothing seems real. Silence he hears until his flashlight beams on a loud merry-go-round suddenly filling the whole room with a rusted screech of gears and cogs making up the melody. His mother and father's images follow him everywhere in this room as the bedroom indirectly accuses him for being a narc (his daddy did something very naughty to him and he told his mom). It's a world of the conscious and the spirit of the heart come to life. Amen?
