Aspects et sens du droit international privé Hague Academy of International Law, 1985-05-13 The Academy is a prestigious international institution for the study and teaching of Public and Private International Law and related subjects. The work of the Hague Academy receives the support and recognition of the UN. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject, including legislation and case law. All courses at the Academy are, in principle, published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law .

Recueil Des Cours Fawcett, 1994-03-01 The Academy is an institution for the study and teaching of public and private international law and related subjects. Its purpose is to encourage a thorough and impartial examination of the problems arising from international relations in the field of law. The courses deal with the theoretical and practical aspects of the subject, including legislation and case law. All courses at the Academy are, in principle, published in the language in which they were delivered in the Collected Courses of the Hague Academy of International Law. This volume contains: - Products Liability in Private International Law: a European Perspective by J.J. FAWCETT, Professor at the University of Leicester. - Le statut personnel dans le droit international privé des pays africains au sud du Sahara. Conceptions et solutions des conflits de lois. Le poids de la tradition negro-africaine personnaliste, par A.K. BOYE, professeur à l'Université Cheikh Anta Diop, Dakar. To access the abstract texts for this volume please click here

Les bases éthiques pour le droit et la société , 1986-10-20 Problèmes de Conflits de Lois en Matière de Filiation, Jacques Foyer Jacques Foyer, Professor at the University of Paris II, notes in introduction of his course that it can be enlightening to compare the different modern methods of solution of the conflict of laws regarding filiation. The study of the different systems shows that there exist at least three methods to contradict the classic choice-of-law rule. The course is structured around the analysis of these three methods. Firstly, it is the criticism of the rigid character and the unpredictability of the traditional rule that triggers the temptation of a manipulation of the choice of law rule. The author then points out that one could question its abstract and arbitrary character, which leads on the one hand to an attempt to hierarchization, and on the other hand, to a diversification of the choice-of-law rules. Lastly, it is the principle of the foreign law's purpose to govern legal relationships in the same way as the lex fori that is questioned, which leads to its partial elimination to the profit of a more or less systematic application of the territorial law or of the one of the court hearing the action. General Course on Private International Law, Friedrich K. Juenger According to Friedrich Juenger, Professor at the University of California in Davis, the outstanding characteristic of the conflict of laws is the lack of consensus on the discipline's goals and methods. He proposes to put the accent in his course on the events for which public international law must find a solution in order to avoid the constant danger that threatens the discipline: that is, to become a simple academic game. Three examples of reported cases and the kinds of issues they raise are given in the Introduction. Professor Juenger next gives a detailed historical overview of the conflict of laws, from Antiquity to Mancini. In addition, the author presents the emergence of new orthodoxies, or rather proposes to re-examine the traditional doctrines, and points out the advantages of a teleological approach. That allows him to revisit the three cases mentioned in the Introduction. Les Bases éthiques pour le Droit et la Société Perspectives de la Commission indépendante sur les questions humanitaires internationales, Sadruddin Aga Khan Conference of July 30, 1985 Sadruddin Aga Khan, President of the Independent Commission on International Humanitarian Issues, recalls in his course on the ethical bases of law and society that the role of the commission he presides is to remind us of the basic elements of a code of ethics which has the same spiritual significance as that found in all major religions. Lawyers as well as scientists, adds the author, must mobilize their immense resources, bearing in mind that the rule of law should never disregard moral appreciation.

Communications Et Droit International A. C. Kiss, J. G. Lammers, 1991 This is the third volume of the Hague Yearbook of International Law, which succeeds the Yearbook of the Association of Attenders and Alumni of the Hague Academy of International Law. The title Hague Yearbook of International Law reflects the close ties which have always existed between the A.A.A. and the City of The Hague with its international law institutions and indicates the Editors' intention to devote attention to developments taking place in those international law institutions, viz. the International Court of Justice, the Permanent Court of Arbitration, the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal and the Hague Conference on Private International Law. This volume contains in-depth articles on these developments and summaries of (aspects of) decisions rendered by the International Court of Justice, the Permanent Court of Arbitration and the Iran-United States Claims Tribunal. In addition, the 1990 volume contains the papers of the Thirty-Third A.A.A. Congress held at Aix-en-Provence on Communications and International Law'.

Cross-border EU Employment and its Enforcement Yves Jorens, 2022-12-08 This book provides insights into the complex labour and social security framework of EU employment and its enforcement. Starting from an analysis of the various EU instruments and case law, it outlines the complicated legal framework, the practical problems involved, and ways to overcome them. In turn, the book puts the evolution of the framework into perspective, reviews the numerous modifications made over the years, and describes interpretation-related difficulties. Since the formation of the European Community 65 years ago, migration and the European labour market have evolved considerably through special patterns of (temporary) mobility such as postings, simultaneous work in several Member States and high mobility, thus leading to major questions about the applicable legal framework. The interplay between the free movement of persons and services has produced a complex system of rules. Which law applies when a person crosses a border: that of the host State (and to what extent should this State take into account the legal rules from the home State?) or that of the home State? Does the person crossing the border have any choice in the matter? The book subsequently analyses the penetration of EU (market) law into national systems of labour and social security law. The divergent solutions and views within labour and social security law are considered and discussed from a critical point of view. As the positive elements of the European story are at risk of being overshadowed by the negative consequences of the European construction – social dumping being the prime example – special attention is paid to the cooperation between inspection services and other stakeholders in order to guarantee efficient enforcement. The latter is more than just sanctioning, but also includes prevention and monitoring issues. The unique strength of this book is that it brings together all legal-technical aspects of cross-border employment and its enforcement in both labour law and social security law in a single volume. Readers will find a wealth of detailed and specialised information, helping them to understand the topic in depth. Accordingly, the book will be of interest to academics, practitioners, enforcement bodies, judiciary policymakers, advanced law students, and researchers seeking to understand the law in context.

Status of NGOs in International Humanitarian Law Claudie Barrat, 2014-07-24 In Status of NGOs in International Humanitarian Law, Claudie Barrat examines the legal framework applicable to NGOs in situations of armed conflict. The author convincingly demonstrates, contrary to convention, that in addition to the ICRC, the National Societies and the IFRC, numerous other NGOs referenced in humanitarian law treaties have a legal status in IHL and therefore legitimate claim to employ IHL provisions to respond to current challenges. On the basis of clear and thorough definitions of these entities, Barrat argues that existing NGOs meeting stringent definition can benefit from customary rights and obligations in both international and non-international armed conflict.

Research Handbook on Ocean Governance Law Simone Borg, Felicity G. Attard, Patricia M. Vella de Fremeaux, 2023-01-17

This authoritative Research Handbook offers wide-ranging coverage of both traditional and emerging topics dealing with the regulation of ocean space and highlights the key academic debates around ocean governance. It provides a formidable interface between the 1982 UNCLOS Convention and the international law regulating ocean governance, while influencing its further evolution through suggestions for future research in the field.

Une anthropologie juridique des droits de l'homme Laurent Sermet, 2009 Les sociétés indo-océaniques, coloniales et postcoloniales, plurielles, en mouvement constant, sont propices à l'observation de la diversité et à la multiplicité des figures du droit, explicites ou cachées, qui illustrent l'extrême variété de la condition humaine. Cette condition humaine, le droit la retrace certainement, mais jamais plus toutefois que sous la forme d'une ombre projetée. De surcroît, l'immensité des champs que la règle de droit est amenée, dans l'espace et le temps, à recouvrir est indiscernable. L'ouvrage met en évidence des productions juridiques indo-océaniques, jugées originales et représentatives d'une pratique sociale ou culturelle. Un canevas relie celles-ci sur la base d'une double relation, la relation entre droit et cultures et la relation entre droit et pouvoir. Cette double interrelation principale prétend présenter un classement des normes juridiques, prises à travers l'exemple des normes indo-océaniques et offrir une grille d'analyse, partant du simple pour comprendre le complexe, en abordant par le truchement de la règle juridique certains des thèmes significatifs de la condition humaine. Deux tensions majeures sont décrites. La première concerne l'opposition entre asservissement par le droit et libération par le droit. Sa résolution appelle une posture politique radicale qui vise à faire émerger un droit des Droits de l'homme. La seconde tension majeure est plus délicate à résoudre. Elle intéresse la pensée moderne et la pensée traditionnelle et illustre leur incapacité à entretenir un dialogue constructif, porteur d'un équilibre dynamique, fondateur d'un droit tiers et concilié. Souvent, leurs rapports aboutissent à des solutions radicales et caricaturales, évidemment conservatrices, négatrices de l'altérité. Par exception, le cas du droit pluraliste malgache de la famille montre qu'un dialogue entre les sources formelles, la loi et la coutume, est réalisable. Il est le prélude à un dialogue plus délicat à engager dans la perspective d'un droit nouveau, le droit de l'altérité et de soi. Ainsi l'océan Indien ouvre la voie à une anthropologie juridique des droits de l'homme.
