La muerte en el imaginario del México profundo Alma Barbosa Sánchez,2010 An anthropological study that explores the complex structure of the Pre-Columbian and present Mesoamerican beliefs and folklore regarding life after death and the funerary ceremonies and rites that must take place in order for the soul of the deceased to be able to cross to the other world and return each 2nd of October to feed on the family offerings. The rituals account for two main processes: the burial of the body and nine days later the burial of the soul, a rite that includes that diverse funerary household goods, cloths, huaraches (sandals) and food are placed inside the casket that will help the soul face the vicissitudes of the trip, and where each ethnic community adds, substitutes or omits elements that reflect their own perspective or symbolic representation of the supernatural passage.--p. 58.

Porque venimos a este mundo a ayudarnos Yuribia Velázquez Galindo,2018-09-10 En México se vive el renacimiento y florecimiento de uno de los proyectos originales de la Antropología: el esfuerzo por concebir la vida y el mundo desde el punto de vista de la gente con quien hacemos investigación y de tomar en serio estos entendimientos en el sentido de colocarlos en el mismo nivel intelectual de la ciencia. Este esfuerzo implica llevar a cabo la investigación de otra forma, verla como aprendizaje y no simplemente como la recolección de datos. Este trabajo es una contribución importante a dicho renacimiento, además de ser un ejemplo para seguir por la amplitud y detalle de su etnografía. Sugiere que es hora de realmente poner en práctica el multiculturalismo del cual se escucha tanto hoy en día y de empezar a integrar el conocimiento de otras culturas, como la nahua, no sólo en la teoría antropológica sino a la vida urbana-moderna en general.
