Victoria Neufeldt, David Bernard Guralnik

The Greenwood Encyclopedia of Homes Through World History James M. Steele, 2009-03-30 The house, throughout history, in every place in the world, has been built to provide shelter from the elements. The dwellings that have resulted are as different as the people that have built them, the social norms that prevailed at the time and place in which they were built and the natural environment that they adapted to. Studying them now in a comprehensive way allows us to understand the social, political, economic and religious conditions that existed for their inhabitants. They are a three-dimensional record of culture. Twenty-four pages of color images, along with black and white images through three volumes, illustrate the homes of people throughout the world. The volumes cover ancient times to the late Middle Ages, the Renaissance to the Industrial Revolution, and the Post-Industrial Revolution to the Present.

Webster's New World College Dictionary Victoria Neufeldt, David Bernard Guralnik, 1996 Offers hundreds of new words and meanings, including many unique to American English, with thousands of examples of current usage.
