Fostering Children's Faith Jeanne Hall, 2012-03-29 Fostering faith in children is a shared privilege and responsibility of parents, godparents, and the church community. We promise our children at baptism that we will support them in their faith formation--in the formation of their relationship with God. We need to take this promise seriously. This book is intended to be an accessible and helpful resource for parents and other adults who seek to foster children's faith. This book succinctly explores many ways we can support children's faith formation, including our day-to-day interactions with children, the images of God we share with them, how we pray together, the rituals we create, service opportunities we provide, music we share together, the stories we tell and listen to, our celebration of the sacraments, and more. While this book has a distinctly Roman Catholic orientation, much of the content will be relevant for a wider Christian audience. Lastly, but perhaps most importantly, this book is rooted in the conviction that the God we seek relationship with and that we hope to foster our children's relationship with is one who is infinitely loving, welcoming, and always yearning for deeper connection with us.

Layers of Silence M.L. Curtis, 2022-02-03 Have you ever looked around a room full of people and wondered who they really are? What's their story? What have they been through? What makes them the way they are? Daphne is a beautiful, single career woman who turns heads whenever she walks into a room. Despite the obvious attention from others, she battles insecurity and keeps her true feelings hidden, even from herself. Rachel lives what seems to be a very charmed life. She is married to the perfect man and has two adorable children. Unfortunately, the effects of Rachel's childhood trauma can resurface unexpectedly, sending her into a dark place from which her husband struggles to free her. Kate is a young waitress who rarely speaks unless spoken to. She is an orphan, suffers from OCD, and doesn't understand what love is.
