Quotes by Aung San Suu Kyi Lilith Regan,2020-04-17 It is not power that corrupts but fear. Fear of losing power corrupts those who wield it and fear of the scourge of power corrupts those who are subject to it. Human beings the world over need freedom and security that they may be able to realize their full potential. The democracy process provides for political and social change without violence. The value systems of those with access to power and of those far removed from such access cannot be the same. The viewpoint of the privileged is unlike that of the underprivileged. The history of the world shows that peoples and societies do not have to pass through a fixed series of stages in the course of development. It is often in the name of cultural integrity as well as social stability and national security that democratic reforms based on human rights are resisted by authoritarian governments. Peace as a goal is an ideal which will not be contested by any government or nation, not even the most belligerent.

Myanmar (Burma) since the 1988 Uprising Andrew Selth, 2022-01-24 Updated by popular demand, this is the fourth edition of this important bibliography. It lists a wide selection of works on or about Myanmar published in English and in hard copy since the 1988 pro-democracy uprising, which marked the beginning of a new era in Myanmar's modern history. There are now 2,727 titles listed. They have been written, edited, translated or compiled by over 2,000 people, from many different backgrounds. These works have been organized into thirty-five subject chapters containing ninety-five discrete sections. There are also four appendices, including a comprehensive reading guide for those unfamiliar with Myanmar or who may be seeking guidance on particular topics. This book is an invaluable aid to officials, scholars, journalists, armchair travellers and others with an interest in this fascinating but deeply troubled country.

Understanding Your Social Agency Armand Lauffer, 2011 Understanding Your Nonprofit Agency, written by internationally renowned scholar Armand Lauffer, will fill the growing need for the distinction between corporate business operations and nonprofit operations. The book will focus on how nonprofit agencies operate and not how they are managed. It has been assumed that both entities function similarly. Currently, this assumption is increasingly seen as groundless: nonprofit and profit-driven organizations have different goals and function differently from each other. This text addresses the current trend to differentiate how nonprofits are distinct.

The Moral Democracy Michał Lubina, 2019-03-12 Aung San Suu Kyi spoke passionately about non-violence, she wrote involved articles about compatibility of democracy with Buddhism and she won the hearts and minds of so many with her call for the freedom from fear (...) It seemed - for more than two decades - that Suu Kyi was a perfect, non-Western propagator of democracy, human rights, rule of law (...) Yet a deeper analysis reveals that Suu Kyi intellectually, indeed, has been a democrat all along, but a Burmese democrat (...) Suu Kyi understands democracy in a Buddhist way and she reasons about politics using Buddhist ideas, idioms and concepts (...) This Buddhist dominance of her political thought had several consequences, the most important one being that her approach to politics has first and foremost been a moral one (...) her vision of democracy (and of politics in general) is a moral vision. It is something I propose to call "the moral democracy." The same reason that made her famous and admired worldwide, now contributed to her fall from grace. For too many outside Burma/Myanmar it is impossible to understand how Suu Kyi – yesterday’s global personification of good and morality – can now silently endorse crimes against humanity conducted in her country and accept forced relocation of 700 thousand people. A cynic would quote Bertrand Russell’s words (“we have two kinds of morality side by side: one which we preach but do not practice and another which we practice but seldom preach”) and add a commentary that it applies especially to politicians. One, however, may offer a more favourable explanation: that Suu Kyi represents a tragic clash of ideas, including moral ideas, with political reality. Whatever the case, it was morality that made her famous, it was the same moralistic attitude that contributed to her removal from international Olympus and it is this moral understanding of politics that is the hallmark of her political thought, which is here to stay for longer, as political ideas last longer than changing political circumstances and fashions. From the Preface The dramatic fall from grace of Burma's human rights icon Aung San Suu Kyi shocked the world. Michał Lubina's magisterial account of Aung San Suu Kyi's political education demystifies the behavior in power of this otherwise enigmatic leader. This is the indispensable book for anyone who wants to understand the mind of one of the world's most controversial women. Prof. Salvatore Babones, University of Sydney Dr. Michał Lubina, known in Poland for portraying Aung San Suu Kyi not as a human rights activist, but as a realist politician in the very footsteps of her father, now comes out with his research to the international audience. Following the example of Mahbubani's Can Asian Think? Lubina shows the intellectual and philosophical tradition of Myanmar through the case study of Suu Kyi's political thought. It's a unique undertaking that presents Suu Kyi from an unexpected angle: as a theoretician and political thinker or sage. Both the scope of research done and the material presented are very impressive and rather unique, even on international scene. Prof. Bogdan Góralczyk, University of Warsaw, Former Ambassador to Myanmar This book is a well-documented and well-constructed, multilayered, complex, analytical work based on very rich research, interviews with Suu Kyi and personal observations of the Author, who displays unquestioned analytical skills. As such the book represents a pioneer work in Burmese studies. Prof. Agnieszka Kuszewska, Jagiellonian University in Cracow None of the numerous books and articles that I have read about Daw Aung San Suu Kyi dissects her political thoughts and background as thoroughly as the book written by Dr. Michał Lubina. He shows the political construction of her character, her struggle, her idealism, her sources of inspiration and her weaknesses. It is a necessary publication to read in order to understand historical and contemporary policymaking in today's Burma. Dr. Marion Sabrié, University of Rouen Normandy

Losing Control Louise Williams, Roland Rich, 2014-01-10 'A free press is not a luxury. A free press is at the absolute core of equitable development' according to World Bank President James Wolfensohn. A free press is also the key to transparency and good governance and is an indispensable feature of a democracy. So how does Asia rate? In Losing Control, leading journalists analyse the state of play in all the countries of North Asia and Southeast Asia. From the herd journalism of Japan to the Stalinist system of North Korea, Losing Control provides an inside look at journalism and freedom of the press in each country. One conclusion—a combination of new technology and greater democracy is breaking the shackles that once constrained the press in Asia. 'Brings together Asia's best and brightest observers of the press.' Heritage of Struggle Aung San Suu Kyi Shashidhar Khan, 2021-01-01 'Heritage of Struggle : Aung San Suu Kyi' is the story of a reformer, who combats violence and bloodshed with peaceful fearlessness – a leader of international standing, who restored democracy to Myanmar, Suu Kyi can be compared to Mahatma Gandhi. Suu Kyi fought against a much more powerful military tyranny, by making non-violence and tolerance her arms of defense. The basic difference between the campaign of India's father of the nation, Mahatma Gandhi and Suu Kyi is that Mahatma Gandhi took the support of peace and non-violence to free India from the foreigners, but Suu Kyi had to take on the unrestrained rulers of her own country, who had created the same terror in the minds of their own brothers and compatriots, as that which is felt under foreign slavery, thereby stifling their democratic rights.

The Fighting Peacock and a Nation in Transition Sayar Mya, 2018-07-09 The book is about a political party in Myanmar named National League for Democracy founded by people from various walks of life in the midst of upheavals that started in 1988. The chair of the party is no other than iconic Daw Aung San Suu Kyi, the noble laureate. The symbol of the party is the fighting peacock. It is associated with the decades-long democratic struggle against military dictatorship in the country. The symbol closely resembles a green peafowl, as it has a tufted crest. The NLD party symbol is adopted from the Myanmar (Burmese) Student Union flag. The NLD won a landslide victory in the 1990 general elections held by the military government, the State Law and Order Restoration Council (SLORC). However, it did not transfer power to the NLD. After a long and bitter political struggle for many years of the NLD hand in hand with the masses, the party won a landslide victory in the 2015 general elections. In March 2016, the civilian government led by the NLD took over the administration from the military-backed government of the country. The book tells in dashing lines about a nation in transition under fledgling democracy.

Questioning the Secular State David Westerlund, 1996 Should the state be secular or religious. Here the author seeks to determine the extent of the role of religion in political life.

The Key Journey to Success Arnaud Romeo Noume, 2011-07-27 It is good to succeed. By which I mean progressing, achieving your goals, attaining what you want to attain. Orchid Steel Lady Nurul Ichsan, 2020-01-28 Ada banyak pandangan yang lahir terkait definisi film bahkan memperdebatkan lahirnya film. Bagi Irawanto (1999), film merupakan refleksi dari realitas yang tumbuh dan berkembang dalam masyarakat, merangkum pluralitas nilai dari berbagai dinamika struktur sosial, politik, dan budaya. Film sebagai refleksi dari realitas dalam proses-proses sosial yang terjadi di masyarakat tampaknya menjadi perspektif yang lebih umum dari para teoritikus film, Garth Jowett misalnya. Garth Jowett dalam Irawanto menyatakan bahwa media massa merefleksikan masyarakat karena didesak oleh hakikat komersialnya untuk menyajikan isi yang tingkatnya akan menjamin kemungkinan capaian audiens yang lebih luas. Gagasan Jowett ini sejalan dengan gagasan McLean (1998) yang menyebutkan film itu bagian televisuality yang menggabungkan intervensi ekonomi, sejarah, realitas, dan fiksi. Akan tetapi, lain halnya dengan Graeme Turner (1991) yang menyebutkan bahwa definisi film sebatas refleksi merupakan perspektif yang sangat primitif dan mengandung metaphor yang kurang memuaskan karena menyederhanakan proses representasi dalam komposisi komunikasi. Karena itulah, Turner dalam definisinya, menyebutkan film sebagai medium representasi yang mengkonstruksi dan menghadirkan kembali gambaran dari realitas melalui kode-kode, konvensi-konvensi, ideologi dari kebudayaannya. Taylor Caldwell dalam McLean (1998) menekankan bahwa film tidak hanya lahir sebagai nilai-nilai estetika dan sejarah, melainkan jati diri dan fantasi. Bagaimanapun perdebatan tentang rahim sebuah film, perlu disadari bahwa terdapat individu-individu yang terlibat dalam produksi sebuah film di mana setiap individu merupakan partisipan sosial yang terlibat dalam proses-proses sosial di lingkungan sosialnya. Dalam proses-proses sosial yang terjadi, setiap individu melakukan pengamatan, terlibat di dalamnya, memahami, dan merepresentasekannya sebagai bentuk kognisi atau pengetahuan. Teun A. Van Dijk menyebutnya sebagai kognisi sosial. Kognisi sosial lahir dari representase yang dipengaruhi oleh latar struktur atau dimensi sosial (makro mencakup kelompok sosial dan institusi sosial), psikologi, pengetahuan, dan keyakinan. Karena itu, Van Dijk melihat individu sebagai anggota kelompok sosial, sebagai institusi sosial, dan sebagai prosesor informasi.
