This is typical of femine nouns beginning with a accented 'a' and is a phonetic thing, avoiding the running together of the two a's. There is a short list of these words, including águila, and I can't think of others at the moment! Why is "el agua" not "la agua"? - SpanishDict Nov 16, 2009 · The only reason that they use "el" in their singular form is to avoid the difficulty (technically called a cacophony) of saying "la agua" or "la águila" very quickly (the a's would run into eachother.) But also note, as Fred said, that if anything comes before the article and the noun, then "la" is used. Beber Conjugation | Conjugate Beber in Spanish Conjugate Beber in every Spanish verb tense including preterite, imperfect, future, conditional, and subjunctive. All words that have the emphasis on the first syllable and begin with an A follow this patter. If they didn't the end of la would run together with the first syllable and sound like lagua.
