Love and Quasars Paul Wallace, 2019-10-01 Like many Americans, Paul Wallace grew up as a church-going Christian. Also like many, he lost his faith when he started taking science classes in college. He just didn't see how the rigorous method demanding by science could coexist with the belief in things unseen required by Christianity. But, as a working astrophysicist, he started to wonder if he'd gotten something wrong. Slowly and deliberately, he investigated the claims of Christianity, while also acknowledging that science, too, has limits. Ultimately, he came back to Christianity. In Love and Quasars, Wallace shows how faith and science are pitted against one another, and he explains how the standard ways of reconciling them don't work. He then proposes a reasonable, thoughtful approach that will appeal to Christians and students of science alike. Readable and wise, Love and Quasars is an indispensable resource for people who wonder if faith and science can coexist.

Unimaginable Deacon Francis G. King Ph.D.,2023-07-17 In 2010, God gave me the goal of my diaconate ministry: to bring peace and joy to all I meet. This book manifests the fruit of my submission to God's will on joy. It describes how we can achieve joy through the soul's three faculties: will to do good, mind to know the truth, and heart to love. The function of the will is to do good, and we desire goodness. When we are co-creators with God to make the world a better place for one person at a time to the best of our abilities, we are joyful in the will, and therefore, are joyful in living. The function of the mind is to know the truth. Since Christ is the Truth, to know God is to know joy: His blessings, righteousness, love, encouragement, perseverance, and faithfulness. Joy in the heart is based on the Law of the Gift of self. In a relationship we receive joy in the heart when we become one with another as in marriage when the two lovers become one. Since God loves us more than we can ever imagine, joy in the heart is to become with one God. He loves us so much that He wants us to be one with Him for all eternity in heaven. Joy is not merely happiness; rather, I contend that it is the realization of supreme happiness. Christ is the only true source of our joy. When we are one with Him and His mission to save souls, we receive joy in the will, mind, and heart. Joy is a choice, and not always an easy one; but as we reflect on it together, I hope it is a choice which you will take with me.

The Unknown Luis f. Montalvo ,2022-09-23 Introduction: My name is Thomas Edward Daniels. My associates call me Professor Daniels, and my friends simply call me Tom. I am a fictional character created by the author. I teach history at an upscale university somewhere in North Carolina. I am married to the most beautiful woman on planet earth. Her name is

Sara Daniels. We have been married for over twenty-years, although to me, it feels more like a century! And I'm sure she agrees with me. We live in a beautiful two-story Victorian-style house built in 1922 with our beautiful, blessed daughter, Sofia. Our blessing is now nine years old and a handful. Our little Sofi, as we call her, is a passionate fan of ice-cream. If ice-cream was a meal, it would be her choice for breakfast, lunch, and dinner. My life was picture perfect—a beautiful family, a beautiful home filled with love and joy. The only thing missing was just a dog or cat. But one day, my entire world came crashing down. My life changed drastically when my beautiful wife was diagnosed with a terminal illness. I lost my job of twenty years and started drinking from sunrise to sundown to cope with all the pain and sorrow of this new reality. I was scared, broken, and lost. Having these feelings that I had never had to experience before truly broke my soul. Did I mention I have a gift? I can see the dead and they can see and communicate their thoughts and feelings to me. You see, when I was seven years old, I discovered this unique and special gift for the very first time. The dead like to communicate and share with me how they died and, in most cases, who killed them or who or what took them away. It is a curse to be able to have this gift as evil itself is present in many forms with maleficent intentions every single time. I have worked as a paranormal investigator in the past to help families discover the truth about the passing of their loved ones. I am about to share with you the last chapter of my journey in life—or is it? This is how it all started, or perhaps, how it ended? The Unknown Supernatural/Mystery/Suspense
