Otrarse Juan Gelman, 2024-11-15 One of Latin American's most important poets of the twentieth century, Juan Gelman (1930-2014) spent much of his life in exile from his native Argentina during the Dirty War. Gelman was a child of Yiddish-speaking Ukrainian immigrants, and a significant, seldom recognized portion of his poetry dealt with Jewish themes. He established a dialogue across time with Santa Teresa de Ávila and San Juan de la Cruz, the sixteenth-century Spanish mystical poets whose ancestry was also Jewish. He rewrote portions of the Bible, medieval Hebrew poetry, and even taught himself Ladino, the language of Sephardic Jews, and wrote a book of poems in it. In this bilingual volume, celebrated scholar Ilan Stavans retraces Gelman's regard for these poetic ancestors, translating into English his Jewish oeuvre by carefully preserving the Hebrew, Spanish, and Ladino echoes of the originals. The result is historically accurate and artistically exhilarating, repositioning Gelman as a major Jewish writer of the last century.

Writing for Inclusion Karen Ruth Kornweibel,2018-09-15 Writing for Inclusion is a study of some of the ways the idea of national identity developed in the nineteenth century in two neighboring nations, Cuba and The United States. The book examines symbolic, narrative, and sociological commonalities in the writings of four Afro-Cuban and African American writers: Juan Francisco Manzano and Frederick Douglass, fugitive slaves during mid-century; and Martín Morúa Delgado and Charles W. Chesnutt from the post-slavery period. All four share sensitivity to their imperfect inclusion as full citizens, engage in an examination of the process of racialization that hinders them in seeking such inclusion, and contest their definition as non-citizens. Works discussed include the slave narratives of Manzano and Douglass, Manzano's poetry and play Zafra, and Douglass's oratory and novella The Heroic Slave. Also considered, within the context provided by Manzano and Douglass, are Morúa and Chesnutt's non-fiction writings about race and nation as well as their second-generation "tragic mulata" novels Sofía and The House Behind the Cedars. Based on an examination of the works of these four authors, Writing for Inclusion provides a detailed examination of examples of self-emancipation, the authors' symbolic use of language, their expression of social anxieties or irony within the quest for recognition, and their arguments for an inclusive vision of national identity beyond the quagmires of race. By focusing on the process of racialization and ideas of race and national identity in a comparative context, the study seeks to highlight the artificial and contested nature of both terms and suggest new ways to interrogate them in our present day.

Estructuras sociales, religión y poder Rosalba FRANCISCA PONCE RIVEROS,2014-03-31 Esta investigación plantea un análisis comparativo de los significados subyacentes en las estructuras sociales y las manifestaciones religiosas de dos poblaciones rurales de origen agrícola: Acaxochitlán, Hidalgo, en México y la Villa de Tamames de la Sierra en la Provincia de Salamanca, España. El estudio implicó la revisión de los antecedentes históricos y culturales de cada uno de estos lugares, a fin de trazar los contornos de la cosmovisión y el ethos que asumen sus habitantes a través de la interpretación de los significados que encierran las estructuras sociales y las manifestaciones de religiosidad. Concretamente, se trató de responder, entre otros, al siguiente interrogante: ¿Cuál es la implicación de la cosmovisión y el ethos de un grupo humano en las estructuras sociales y las manifestaciones religiosas?

Transnational Death Samira Saramo,Eerika Koskinen-Koivisto,Hanna Snellman,2019-09-24 With so much of the global population living on the move, away from their homelands, and in diasporic communities, death and mourning practices are inevitably impacted. Transnational Death brings together eleven cutting-edge articles from the emerging field of transnational death studies. By highlighting European, Asian, North American, and Middle Eastern perspectives, the collection provides timely and fresh analysis and reflection on people's changing experiences with death in the context of migration over time. First beginning with a thematic assessment of the field of transnational death studies, readers then have the opportunity to delve into case studies that examine experiences with death and mourning at a distance from the viewpoints of Family, Community, and Commemoration. The chapters highlight complicated issues confronting migrants, their families, and communities, including: negotiations of burial preferences and challenges of corpse repatriation; the financial costs of providing end-of-life care, travel at times of death, and arranging culturally appropriate funerals and religious services; as well as the emotional and sociocultural weight of mourning and commemoration from afar. Overall, Transnational Death provides new insights on identity and belonging, community reciprocity, transnational communication, and spaces of mourning and commemoration.

Los indios de México Fernando Benítez,2013-09-04 El tercer tomo de Los indios de México comprende a los mazatecos de la Sierra Madre Oriental que mira al Atlántico y a los coras de la Sierra Madre Occidental que mira al Pacífico. Pueblos antípodas, están unidos por el uso ritual de las drogas alucinantes, pues unos son adoradores de los hongos sagrados y otros del peyote, el Divino Luminoso. Tierra de brujos cuenta por primera vez la historia de los veinte mil mazatecos que fueron expulsados de sus tierras cuando se construyó la presa Alemán. Al decantarse un mundo que estuvo dormido siglos enteros, despertó de su sueño mágico para encontrarse que sólo tenía en la mano un palo puntiagudo para sobrevivir en una tierra hostil y desacralizada. La segunda parte, Nostalgia del paraíso, es también el primer estudio que se realiza sobre una de las culturas más extraordinarias y mejor conservadas: la de los coras de Nayarit, vecinos y parientes de los huicholes, quienes dicen los mitos y se comunican con los dioses y los muertos por medio de la danza y la representación teatral.
