History Education at the Edge of the Nation Piero S. Colla, Andrea Di Michele, 2023-06-27 This edited volume explores the evolution of history education from a transnational perspective, focusing on border regions in Europe that are considered on the periphery of the Nation-State. By introducing this concept and taking into consideration the dynamics of decentralization and the development of minorities' teaching practices and narratives, the book sheds light on new challenges for history education policy and curriculum design. Chapters take a comparative approach, dissecting and analyzing specific case studies from school systems in France, Germany, Italy, the UK, and Scandinavian countries. In doing so, the editors and their authors weave a systematic account of the impact of local autonomy on educational culture, on the civic remit of schools, and on the narratives embodied by history school canons.

History of Universities Mordechai Feingold, Sven Dupré, Sachiko Kusakawa, 2008-12-18 Volume XXIII/2 of History of Universities contains the customary mix of learned articles, book reviews, and bibliographical information, which makes this publication an indispensable tool for the historian of higher education. It offers a lively combination of original research and invaluable reference material.

Universities and Entrepreneurship Paul Jones, Nikolaos Apostolopoulos, Alexandros Kakouris, Christopher Moon, Vanessa Ratten, Andreas Walmsley, 2021-02-15 The aim of this book is to discuss how universities are acting in an entrepreneurial way by responding to educational and social challenges. This will help to understand fruitful new areas of teaching, research, service and engagement that can occur in a university setting based on entrepreneurial thinking.

Unipandemic Francesco Bearzi, Paolo Bonafede, Salvatore Colazzo, 2024-11-20 Qual è stata la risposta delle università alla pandemia? Quali strategie sono state elaborate per curare la relazione educativa in un contesto così sfidante? I docenti hanno ascoltato se stessi, i propri studenti, i fremiti rigenerativi che agitavano l'ecosistema naturale e sociale? Si sono aperti a una didattica più cooperativa e democratica? L'accademia italiana ha saputo cogliere l'opportunità di riflettere sul détournement pandemico per invertire la rotta, oppure ha proseguito imperterrita la propria deriva verso i lidi egemonici della competizione neoliberista, che mortifica la persona dello studente inquadrandola nell'etichetta di stakeholder? A queste domande rispondono esponenti della Generazione Z provenienti da vari atenei della penisola, mentre raccontano anni critici della propria Bildung. Giovani capaci di re-immaginare il futuro e di trasformare la gerontocrazia, che offrono preziosi spunti di riflessione per riscoprire il senso del termine universitas. La profondità dei testi raccolti nel volume rappresenta una testimonianza decisamente significativa della misura in cui l'apprendimento narrativo e autobiografico possa rivelarsi fecondo per costruire itinerari accademici autenticamente formativi.

Sabaudian Studies Matthew Vester, 2013-04-01 This collection of interdisciplinary essays introduce the history and culture of the lands ruled by the sovereign house of Savoy during the late medieval and early modern periods, territories now part of France, Italy, and Switzerland. Because the Sabaudian realms were geographically, linguistically, and culturally diverse and did not evolve into a single modern nation-state, their early history has been overlooked by historians whose perspectives were often informed by a narrow, national framework. An international team of scholars offers new research that de-provincializes many of the existing rich scholarly assessments of the historical significance of these lands, which were important for rulers and subjects throughout early modern Europe. The volume explores the concept of "Sabaudian studies" and identifies historiographic developments and current trends in the field. Beginning with the geography and the history of the area, the essays examine Sabaudian political culture (diplomatic practice, judicial institutions, and political thought), dynastic representation (court festivals and celebrations, and the projection of dynastic prestige abroad, with attention to the sacred heritage of the house), and territorial domination (its fiscal, religious, feudal, and composite dimensions). Contributors include Eva Pibiri, Laurent Perrillat, Rebecca Boone, Alessandro Celi, Thalia Brero, Stéphane Gal and Preston Perluss, Michel Merle, Toby Osborne, Kristine Kolrud, Guido Alfani, Marco Battistoni, Matthew Vester, and Blythe Alice Raviola.

DSA e disabilità. L'inclusione nel Sistema AFAM Salvatore Colazzo, Nicoletta Sciangalepore, 2025-06-27 Negli ultimi anni il mondo accademico musicale, al pari delle università, ha adottato Linee guida per la condivisione di buone pratiche ai fini dell'inclusione di studenti DSA e con disabilità nei percorsi formativi dei Conservatori di Musica. L'ingresso di studenti "speciali" ha fornito molti elementi per la discussione e la rielaborazione dell'approccio didattico. Già a partire dagli anni Cinquanta e Sessanta del secolo scorso ha preso il via una nuova fase di revisione delle prospettive pedagogiche e didattiche nel variegato mondo della scuola. Finalmente i Conservatori di musica pervengono a recepire l'esigenza di una profonda revisione dell'insegnamento per pervenire a un apprendimento efficace da parte di ogni singolo allievo, superando l'approccio selettivo che li ha sempre caratterizzati. I contributi nel pre-sente testo, che riprendono i contenuti di un Convegno sul tema voluto dal Conservatorio di Musica "N. Piccinni" di Bari spaziano dall'informazione sulla normativa di riferimento agli aspetti neurobiologici, a possibili approcci didattici nel campo musicale. Il testo nel suo complesso offre una immagine dello stato attuale delle conoscenze teorico-scientifiche, con l'auspicio che una sempre più approfondita riflessione e attenzione possa fornire un sinergico sistema di istruzione maggiormente inclusivo, accogliente ed efficiente.

Twin Cities across Five Continents Ekaterina Mikhailova, John Garrard, 2021-11-29 This international collection provides a comprehensive overview of twin cities in different circumstances - from the emergent to the recently amalgamated, on 'soft' and 'hard' borders, with post-colonial heritage, in post-conflict environments and under strain. With examples from Europe, the Middle East, Africa, Asia, South America, North America and the Caribbean, the volume sees twin cities as intense thermometers for developments in the wider urban world globally. It offers interdisciplinary perspectives that bridge history, politics, culture, economy, geography and other fields, applying these lenses to examples of twin cities in remote places. Providing a comparative approach and drawing on a range of methodologies, the book explores where and how twin cities arise; what twin cities can tell us about international borders; and the way in which some twin cities bear the spatial marks of their colonial past. The chapters explore the impact on twin-city relations of contemporary pressures, such as mass migration, the rise of populism, East-West tensions, international crime, surveillance, rebordering trends and epidemiological risks triggered by the COVID-19 pandemic. With case studies across the continents, this volume for the first time extends twin-city debates to fictional imaginings of twin cities. Twin Cities across Five Continents is a valuable resource for researchers in the fields of anthropology, history, geography, urban studies, border studies, international relations and global development as well as for students in these disciplines.

Place Branding Pantea Foroudi,Chiara Mauri,Charles Dennis,T C Melewar,2019-11-28 Place branding as a field of research is still in a state of infancy. This book seeks to address this, offering a theory of place branding based on the tourist experience, keeping in mind the roles of stakeholders, both public and private organisations and DMOs in managing the place brand. Place Branding: Connecting Tourist Experiences to Places seeks to build a customer-based view of place branding through focusing on the individual as a tourist who travels to undertake a memorable experience. The place is the key creator of this experience, which begins well before the travel-to and ends well after the travel-back. Individuals choose the places where to go, collect information on them, ask for advice and suggestions from fellow travellers, give feedback when they come back and talk a lot about their experience, spreading word-of-mouth. The book enables readers to understand how the tourist experience can be managed as a brand. Readers are exposed to a variety of problems, methodological approaches, and geographical areas, which allows them to adapt frames to different contexts and situations. This book is recommended reading for students and scholars of business, marketing, tourism, urban studies and public diplomacy, as well as practitioners, business consultants and people working in public administration and politics.

DÉSORDRE Futurismi di ieri e di oggi Giuliana Adamo ,2021-04-19 La sempre esistente dialettica di intellettuali e artisti impegnati - nello strenuo confronto tra sé, l'Altro e il mondo -, a dare senso al caos esteriore ed interiore attraverso rappresentazioni ermeneutiche, etiche ed estetiche che implicano la scelta tra ordine e disordine, costituisce il filo rosso che lega i saggi qui raccolti. Dalle silve rinascimentali all'attuale acrostico-rompicapo che chiude il volume sfidando il lettore, attraverso le esperienze di vari futurismi nel corso del Novecento, gli autori dei saggi dipanano e svolgono per il lettore una fitta e affascinante messe di sperimentazioni e rivoluzioni attuate mediante un ampio spettro di sorprendenti modalità compositive e soluzioni formali. Il volume apre una finestra sulla miriade di autori contro-corrente – avanguardisti, sperimentatori, sfidanti tutti i paradigmi del politically correct dei rispettivi tempi –, che affascinati dal disordine esterno, caotico e primordiale, spontaneo e seducente, voluttuoso e inafferrabile, libero e ludico, colorato e prepotente, hanno intentato di formalizzarlo, nelle maniere più diverse, ordinandolo dentro testi di semiotica finitezza, ma veicolanti elusive multisignificazioni e fertili polisemie che li hanno resi resistenti nel Tempo. Saggi di Paolo Cherchi, Giuliana Adamo, Salvatore Colazzo, Cosimo Colazzo, Bianca Battilocchi, Marco Sonzogni.

The interdisciplinary aim of the book brings together text-based and material-based researchers to improve scholarly exchange and dialogue and provide a variety of contributions that elucidate topics such as worldview and cosmology, ritual and religious practice, myth and memory, as well as reception and present-day use of old Norse religion.

Pedagogia Speciale, Medicina, Tecnologia. Territori comuni, specificità e intrecci Nicole Bianquin, Alessia Cinotti, 2020-05-21 Il volume trae origine dalle attività scientifiche svoltesi durante la Autumn School della Società Scientifica di Pedagogia Speciale (SiPes) intitolata 'La pedagogia speciale in dialogo con altre discipline. Intersezioni, ibridazioni e alfabeti possibili, a 10 anni dalla fondazione di SiPeS' che ha avuto luogo presso l'Università di Bergamo. I contributi ospitati in questo testo si focalizzano su due sezioni specifiche della School: la prima dedicata all'incontro tra Pedagogia Speciale e Medicina, presentando molteplici riflessioni e percorsi di ricerca attraverso cui si sviluppa costantemente questo intreccio interdisciplinare antico e attualmente significativo, e la seconda focalizzata sul legame con le Tecnologie, offrendo sia approfondimenti teorici sia percorsi euristici volti a delineare le intersezioni tra questi due ambiti, con la finalità di portare alla luce la ricca articolazione che connota questo incontro. The volume originates from the scientific activities held during the Autumn School of the Scientific Society of Special Pedagogy (SiPes) entitled 'Special education in dialogue with other disciplines. Intersections, hybridizations and possible alphabets, 10 years after the foundation of SIPEs' which took place at the University of Bergamo. The contributions hosted in this text focus on two specific sections of the School: the first is dedicated to the meeting between Special Education and Medicine, presenting multiple reflections and research paths through which this ancient yet still significant interdisciplinary interweaving constantly develops, and the second is focused on the link with Technologies, offering both theoretical insights and heuristic paths that aim at delineating the intersections between these two areas, with the aim of bringing to light the rich articulation that characterizes this meeting. Contributi di: Nicole Bianquin, Alessia Cinotti, Fabio Bocci, Carla Gueli, Antonello Mura, Claudia Rodrigues de Freitas, Antioco Luigi Zurru, Ilaria Tatulli, Francesca Salis, Lucia Chiappetta Cajola, Marianna Traversetti, Luisa Lopez, Amalia Lavinia Rizzo, Laura Arcangeli, Marco Bartolucci, Cristina Gaggioli, Moira Sannipoli, Marianna Piccioli, Rosa Bellacicco, Ines Guerini, G. Ostaggi della guerra Autori Vari, 2025-01-16T16:45:00+01:00 La storia della guerra, anche dei conflitti più recenti o delle guerre mondiali, troppo spesso è storia dei combattenti, dei condottieri, dei grandi leader politici. Al centro delle guerre invece ci furono e (sempre più) ci sono anche le popolazioni civili. La seconda guerra mondiale causò più morti civili che militari. Anche in Italia si abbatté pesantemente sui civili, la cui esperienza è stata però molto meno studiata. Conosciamo la storia di alcune categorie che fanno parte del complesso mondo dei civili in guerra: i deportati razziali, quelli per lavoro coatto, quelli colpiti dalla repressione politica... Ma le vicende di molti altri fra donne e uomini – peraltro, la maggioranza delle popolazioni – sono spesso trascurate, e sono ancora oggi assai poco presenti negli studi. Vittime dei bombardamenti, vittime delle condizioni di vita e della fame, vittime dei combattimenti sul fronte interno, vittime nella mente o vittime nel corpo (per violenze di genere), vittime nel dopoguerra di ordigni inesplosi, e ancora altre. Per la prima volta questo volume intende offrire una visione d'insieme delle loro storie ed esperienze: lo sguardo è ampio e compone un quadro più completo di coloro che, ognuna e ognuno a proprio modo, si sentirono “ostaggi della guerra” pur non vestendo in essa alcuna uniforme.
