Anathema: An Enemies to Lovers Dark Romance Gwen Day, 2022-11-05 You can call me Sin, he says. It suits him. It was all for my little sister. That was why I enrolled myself in a bloody system of justice, meting out just deserts to the very worst criminals. It was all for her because she was a monster in the making. I couldn't change that, so I did the next best thing, I found a place where she could be herself, and I could watch over her. Then I was assigned to him - the killer with the many faces, who blends into the crowd, who watches from the shadows, who is aroused by pain, all pain, and everything changed. It wasn't just about her after that. It was about him and me, and what we were becoming to each other, and that was never supposed to happen. To desire him was anathema, everything I was trained not to do. I used to think my sister was the deviant one until I realised how handsome he looked with blood on his hands, and I realised, I'm deviant too. Anathema is the first book in a new series of dark romances where themes of vigilante justice and forbidden love collide. It is for mature audiences only, and is
