Supporting Reading in Grades 6-12 Sybil M. Farwell,Nancy L. Teger,2012-06-11 This book presents a curricular framework for students grades 6-12 that school librarians and teachers can use collaboratively to enhance reading skill development, promote literature appreciation, and motivate young people to incorporate reading into their lives, beyond the required schoolwork. Supporting Reading Grades 6-12: A Guide addresses head-on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students' motivation and test scores. The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this: the READS curriculum, which stands for Read as a personal activity; Explore characteristics, history, and awards of creative works; Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works; Develop a literary-based product; and Score reading progress. Each of these five components is explained thoroughly, describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals, in groups, and as school communities; support classroom teachers' instruction; and connect students to today's constantly evolving technologies. Used in combination with an inquiry/information-skills model, the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic, balanced library program that addresses AASL's Standards for the 21st-Century Learner.

Good Books Lately Ellen Moore,Kira Stevens,2014-03-04 The inside scoop on book groups—from how to run a book group to reading recommendations to discussion topics—from America's first book club consultants. As book group members across the country have discovered, Ellen Moore and Kira Stevens know everything there is to know about book groups, and then some. In Good Books Lately, the founders of the country's first book group consulting company dish out fun, stimulating advice based on their own experiences and those of hundreds of book group members on everything from: * How to start a group—and keep it going * How to tell a book by its cover (really) * How to generate a lively discussion * Behind-the-scenes anecdotes, dirt, and favorite book lists * The best and worst book group books * Book group troubleshooting, no matter what sort of group you belong to * And much more If you're looking for new ideas to spice up your book group, wondering how to join an existing group, or hoping to start your own, Good Books Lately will give you the goods to make your book group experience a rousing, rewarding success.

El Monstruo John Ross,2009-11-24 John Ross has been living in the old colonial quarter of Mexico City for the last three decades, a rebel journalist covering Mexico and the region from the bottom up. He is filled with a gnawing sense that his beloved Mexico City's days as the most gargantuan, chaotic, crime-ridden, toxically contaminated urban stain in the western world are doomed, and the monster he has grown to know and love through a quarter century of reporting on its foibles and tragedies and blight will be globalized into one more McCity. El Monstruo is a defense of place and the history of that place. No one has told the gritty, vibrant histories of this city of 23 million faceless souls from the ground up, listened to the stories of those who have not been crushed, deconstructed the Monstruo's very monstrousness, and lived to tell its secrets. In El Monstruo, Ross now does.

You've Lost Your Mind Now Find Your Soul Rev. Dr. Sandy Range Ph.D. LMHC,2019-07-19 I wasn't always Dr. Sandy. I once was a lost little girl seeking for anyone to love and care about me. I didn't feel human and felt like I was from another planet. I just didn't belong. I went through this cycle for many years until I discovered that I was Soul. This discovery led me to get my graduate and then doctoral degrees. It led me down a path I had been taught in childhood, but had forgotten. That was the path of medicine woman and shaman, and then I became an esoteric-metaphysical minister. You see, in order to find your soul you really do have to lose your mind. I did and I questioned everything. What is God? Who are humans really? What are we supposed to be doing here? I found that as humans we are becoming plagued in a stagnant pattern of pain, illness and suffering everywhere in the world. This is not how it is meant to be. I found that living through our Soul-Self allows us to see the world more clearly and accurately and can remove the patterns of suffering and struggle. The world is changing and many people have forgotten how to be fully human, however many are awakening, knowing, sensing and feeling there is something more. If you are one of those people open these pages and discover how to raise your consciousness and heighten your awareness. Discover how we should be fully aware of the ego-mind that will lead us to believe we are either greater than great or just no good. Even when we are neither we believe it anyway. That is the power of ego. What you will discover is how to pay much more attention to your soul-consciousness, by getting out of our heads and begin living from the place of soul. We've forgotten who we are. Being fully human requires reigning in the ego and becoming the Divine Beings we truly are. Soul is Divine after all.

Library World Records, 3d ed. Godfrey Oswald, 2017-08-11 Which are the oldest public libraries in the world? In what years were the first books printed in French, Thai, Japanese, Arabic, Turkish? What are the oldest extant texts written in Chinese, English, Russian, Spanish? When was the first major computer database used in libraries? What are the titles of the largest, smallest or most expensive books ever published? Where is the world's busiest public library? Which three books were the first to contain photographs? The City We Became N. K. Jemisin, 2020-03-24 Three-time Hugo Award-winning and New York Times bestselling author N.K. Jemisin crafts her most incredible novel yet, a glorious story of culture, identity, magic, and myths in contemporary New York City. In Manhattan, a young grad student gets off the train and realizes he doesn't remember who he is, where he's from, or even his own name. But he can sense the beating heart of the city, see its history, and feel its power. In the Bronx, a Lenape gallery director discovers strange graffiti scattered throughout the city, so beautiful and powerful it's as if the paint is literally calling to her. In Brooklyn, a politician and mother finds she can hear the songs of her city, pulsing to the beat of her Louboutin heels. And they're not the only ones. Every great city has a soul. Some are ancient as myths, and others are as new and destructive as children. New York? She's got six. For more from N. K. Jemisin, check out: The Inheritance Trilogy The Hundred Thousand Kingdoms The Broken Kingdoms The Kingdom of Gods The Inheritance Trilogy (omnibus edition) Shades in Shadow: An Inheritance Triptych (e-only short fiction) The Awakened Kingdom (e-only novella) Dreamblood Duology The Killing Moon The Shadowed Sun The Dreamblood Duology (omnibus) The Broken Earth The Fifth Season The Obelisk Gate The Stone Sky How Long 'til Black Future Month? (short story collection) A glorious fantasy. —Neil Gaiman

Thriving in Babylon David B. Capes, J. Daryl Charles, 2011-01-01 This delightfully multifaceted volume, comprised of thoughtful essays by an esteemed array of cultural critics, probes the intersection of Christian faith and culture to honor the memory of A. J. Chip Conyers, a remarkably ecumenical Christian scholar and cultural warrior whose premature death in 2004 cut short a remarkable career in teaching and writing. As those who knew him can attest, Conyers lived his life at the intersection of Christian theology and cultural concern with a singular blend of astuteness, gracefulness, and Christian conviction. This festschrift, as esteemed theologian and Conyers's mentor Jurgen Moltmann indicates in the foreword, is intended to mirror Conyers's own commitment to incisive cultural criticism and theological faithfulness in the mold of the great tradition. This is no small achievement even for so venerable a cast of scholars as the contributors to this volume, as Conyers crossed interdisciplinary boundaries--in a day of escalating hyper-specialization--with the greatest of ease. He was comfortable discussing contemporary church life or the christological controversy of the patristic era, Heideggerian hermeneutics or human dignity and the imago Dei, faith and the Enlightenment or the fatherhood of God, Catholic substance or Protestant reform. Yet Conyers always did this through the lens of historic Christian orthodoxy. Though he was a most incisive student of culture, in a most refreshing way he steered clear of being co-opted by the currents of culture. Neither retreating into pious devotionism nor opting for the theologically unreflective activism that has become so chic in our post-consensus climate, he embodied a theological perspective that blends responsible cultural engagement with eschatological hope. The reader is sure to encounter the same blend in this festschrift, and to come away both challenged and edified toward fulfilling the message and hope of Conyers' life and work: to faithfully thrive in Babylon.
