La Lengua de Las Mariposas Manuel Rivas, Daniel Sheff, 2013-04 Show the award-winning film to your students and read Manuel Rivas' short stories. The enriching reader, La lengua de las mariposas, helps you use complementary cinematic and literary sources to teach your students about Spanish language and culture. The feature film La lengua de las mariposas, adapted from three of Manuel Rivas' award-winning short stories, follows the life of a young Galician boy coming of age during tense political times at the outset of the Spanish Civil War in 1936. The reader begins by providing a geographical and historical context of Spain during this tumultuous period. Filled with annotations, vocabulary lists, and essay and conversational questions, La lengua de las mariposas actively engages your students in making connections and comparisons across cultures and between artistic genres. Students will explore cultural themes to enhance their understanding of the film and the stories while engaging with modern, authentic, and accessible material. Cinema and literature complement each other very well, Daniel says. Teaching the two together gives students a way to really enrich what they have already learned outside of a textbook setting in a way they find challenging and enjoyable. La lengua de las mariposas provides a unique opportunity for you to introduce film and literature side by side to broaden your students' understanding of the products, practices, and perspectives of Spanish-speaking worlds.

Spanish Popular Cinema Antonio Lázaro Reboll, Andrew Willis, 2004-09-04 This is the first collection in English to focus exclusively on the various forms of popular film produced in Spain and to acknowledge the variety, range and depth of Spanish cinema. Contributors from across Hispanic, media and cultural studies explore a range of genres, from the musicals of the 1930s and 1940s to contemporary horror movies, historical epics of the 1940s and 1950s and contemporary representations of the Spanish Civil War. The book includes reappraisals of key popular directors such as Luis Garcia Berlanga and Antonio Mercero as well as critical analyses of celebrated stars like Marisol. It provides innovative consideration of the promotion and reception of horror in the 1960s, recollections of cinema-going in Madrid, and reflections on successful recent works such as Abre los Ojos and Solas.

Au Naturel Lara Anderson, J. P. Spicer-Escalante, 2010-03-08 Literary naturalism, within the Hispanic context, has traditionally been read as a graphic realist school or movement linked predominantly to late nineteenth century literary production. The essays in Au Naturel: (Re)Reading Hispanic Naturalism—written by scholars from different generations, nationalities and ideological backgrounds—propose a major revisionist contribution to the study of Hispanic naturalism. Based on a theoretical proposal that re-semanticizes naturalismo as a diachronic counter-metanarrative phenomenon that transcends the chronological and geographic limitations imposed by traditional criticism on naturalism, the collection provides new readings of traditional naturalist fare as well as re-readings of works that have not been read, within the bounds of conventional criticism, as naturalist. Re-read within the proposed theoretical framework, its essays demonstrate the countless ways in which Hispanic naturalist texts—literary and more recently, filmic—continue to frankly engage the societal problematics that has impeded true social, political, economic and cultural progress from taking place in the Hispanic world from the turbulent fin-de-siècle period of the nineteenth century through the present day, globalized context. Au Naturel: (Re)Reading Hispanic Naturalism is thus also an open invitation to the scholarly community to re-consider other socio-critical works within the Hispanic naturalist context that observe and reflection upon social issues that continue to plague Hispanic society today.

El lápiz del carpintero Manuel Rivas,2010-07-15 Cuando todo se derrumba, cuando el mal se erige en sistema y la crueldad en norma, ¿puede un lápiz salvar el mundo? Una novela de Manuel Rivas, Premio Nacional de las Letras Españolas 2024. «He aprendido más de la guerra civil española leyendo El lápiz del carpintero, de Manuel Rivas, que en todos los libros de historia.» Günter Grass Premio de la Crítica Española Premio de la Sección Belga de Amnistía Internacional En la cárcel de Santiago de Compostela, en el verano de 1936, un pintor dibuja el Pórtico de la Gloria con un lápiz de carpintero. Los rostros de los profetas y de los ancianos de la Orquesta del Apocalipsis son los de sus compañeros republicanos de presidio. Un guardián, su futuro asesino, lo observa fascinado... La historia de ese lápiz, conductor de memorias, portador de almas, continuará hasta nuestros días. Después de La lengua de las mariposas, Manuel Rivas retoma el hilo de la tragedia española, la guerra que estremeció al mundo y marcó la historia del siglo XX. Pero El lápiz del carpintero no es una historia más sobre la guerra. Trata de la vida de los hombres y las mujeres en el lado más salvaje de la historia. Trata de la fuerza del amor ocupando el hueco abismal de la desesperanza. Con el lápiz del carpintero, con las manos de las lavanderas, con el dolor fantasma de los amputados, con la belleza tísica de los enfermos... va tejiéndose la red de la realidad inteligente. Aquí el lenguaje se confunde con el aliento de la vida, con el código morse de las vísceras. Una novela escrita desde hoy y para siempre. La crítica ha dicho... «Manuel Rivas elabora un relato con criaturas subyugantes; episodios de carácter simbólico y alegórico; secundarios memorables; estampados conmovedores del terror, y teniendo como eje sentimental una bella historia de amor entre Daniel Da Barca y Marisa Mallo.» Antón Castro, ABC «Una novela necesaria en nuestro tiempo de desmemoria. Y un texto ejemplar en su trabada construcción narrativa.» Ángel Basanta, La Razón «Un crisol lleno de emociones y sentimientos comunes a todos los seres humanos, una metáfora de todas las guerras, una lucha que demuestra el poder de salvación que tiene el amor.» M. Blanco Rivas, El Faro de Vigo

The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films Salvador Jiménez Murguía, Alex Pinar, 2018-05-18 Under the Franco regime (1939-1976), films produced in Spain were of poor quality, promoted the regime's agenda, or were heavily censored. After the dictator's death, the Spanish film industry transitioned into a new era, one in which artists were able to more freely express themselves and tackle subjects that had been previously stifled. Today, films produced in Spain are among the most highly regarded in world cinema. The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films features nearly 300 entries on the written by a host of international scholars and film critics. Beginning with movies released after Franco's death, this volume documents four decades of films, directors, actresses and actors of Spanish cinema. Offering a comprehensive survey of films, the entries address such topics as art, culture, society and politics. Each includes comprehensive production details and provides brief suggestions for further reading. Through its examination of the films of the post-Franco period, this volume offers readers valuable insights into Spanish history, politics, and culture. An indispensable guide to one of the great world cinemas, The Encyclopedia of Contemporary Spanish Films will be of interest to students, academics, and the general public alike.

ReelViews James Berardinelli, 2003 The popular film critic offers full-length reviews of his choices for the best one thousand movies from the 1990s to today.

Great Spanish Films Since 1950 Ronald Schwartz, 2008-09-05 When it began, modern Spanish cinema was under strict censorship, forced to conform to the ideological demands of the Nationalist regime. In 1950, the New Spanish Cinema was born as a protest over General Francisco Franco's policies: a new series of directors and films began to move away from the conformist line to offer a bold brand of Spanish realism. In the 1950s and early 1960s, filmmakers such as Juan Antonio Bardem, Luis García Berlanga, and Luis Buñuel expressed a liberal image of Spain to the world in such films as Muerte de un ciclista (Death of a Cyclist), Bienvenido Señor Marshall (Welcome Mr. Marshall), and Viridiana. The emergence of new directors continued into the sixties and seventies with Carlos Saura, José Luis Borau, Víctor Erice, and others. After Franco's death in 1975, censorship was abolished and films openly explored such formerly taboo subjects as sexuality, drugs, the church, the army, and the Civil War. The Spanish cinema was no longer escapist and entertaining but, at long last, mirrored the society it depicted. While established directors like Saura, Bardem, and Berlanga continued to produce distinguished work, the new wave of Spanish cinema included brilliant films by the likes of Montxo Armendáriz (Tasio), Fernando Trueba (First Work), Imanol Uribe (The Death of Mikel), and Pedro Almodóvar (Women on the Verge of a Nervous Breakdown). In the last couple of decades, exciting works by established filmmakers and newcomers alike continue to be produced, including Alejandro Amenábar's Thesis, José Luis Garcí's The Grandfather, and Almodóvar's Talk to Her and Volver. In Great Spanish Films Since 1950, Ronald Schwartz presents a compendium of outstanding Spanish films from the pre-Francoist era through the Spanish New Wave of the 80's and 90's and into the present day. Schwartz provides background, plot, and commentaries of key films from six decades of Spanish cinema. In addition to identifying century. This collection of studies by eighteen prominent theorists and critics offers a diverse panorama of the modern Spanish novel seen through the prism of Spain's recent political, cultural and ideological history. It considers the development of the novel as a social mirror and as a changing literary form, torn between the tradition of stern realism and the aesthetics of rupture affecting all Western literature from the Avant-Garde to the Postmodern age. While some essays emphasise the Spanish cultural context and canonical writers, others are of a broader nature, grouping lesser-known writers under certain literary tendencies: the metaphysical novel, the urban novel, recuperative accounts of the Civil War, feminine first-person narrations, and the rise of the popular detective, historical, and erotic novels. Three studies address the resurgence of the Catalan, Basque and Galician novel and their departure from a poetics of identity to one of global concerns. Interdisciplinary approaches address the reciprocal impacts of literature and cinema, and the effects of the marketplace on the consumption of fiction are not forgotten. The Companion provides ample bibliographies and a valuable chronology, while all titles and quotations are translated into English. Contributors: Marta E. Altisent, Katarzyna Olga Beilin, Ramón Buckley, José F. Colmeiro, Stacey Dolgin Casado, Sebastiaan Faber, David K. Herzberger, Carlos Alex Longhurst, Kathleen N. March, Cristina Martínez-Carazo, Alfredo Martínez Expósito, Nina L. Molinaro, Gonzalo Navajas, Mari Jose Olaziregi, Janet D. Pérez, Randolph D. Pope, Josep Miquel Sobrer, H. Rosi Song.

A Companion to the Twentieth-century Spanish Novel Marta E. Altisent, 2008 The Spanish novel in a turbulent

Teoría y práctica de la adaptación fílmica Barbara Zecchi, 2012 Theory and Practice of Film Adaptation focuses on practical examples of Spanish cinema. The common denominator of the 15 essays in this volume is the approach to adaptation and multiplication. The essays are arranged chronologically (from adapting classics of the Golden Age to the transposition of the current screen works) and thematically (memory, politics, gender ...). The book is not limited to the analysis of the film adaptation of literary works, but also covers the study of the celluloid version or other digital media texts, such as comics and video games. Beyond fidelity as an essential criterion for assessing the artistic content, each essay analyzes the fundamental differences between the written word and the visual image, and reflects on the ideological implications of such adaptations. The essays were written by faculty from different American and Spanish universities.-- Publisher description.

Teatro español entre dos siglos a examen José Romera Castillo, 2011-01-01 Una vez más, tenemos entre manos un eslabón de una ya larga cadena de trabajos del profesor José Romera Castillo sobre estudios teatrales. Dentro de las ricas y variadas aportaciones, que van desde nuestro teatro áureo hasta la teatralidad más reciente, este examen, centrado en diversas producciones tanto textuales como espectaculares, de la segunda mitad del siglo XX y los inicios del XXI, se vislumbra como una herramienta imprescindible en su mejor conocimiento y, por ende, valoración. El volumen está estructurado en tres partes: la primera, "Sobre teatro histórico", se dedicada a examinar una serie de aspectos de las dramaturgias de corte histórico o historicista; la segunda, "Sobre teatro de humor", se centra en el examen de esta modalidad teatral, otra de las tendencias más significativas del arte de Talía, en la actualidad; y la tercera, "Sobre otros aspectos teatrales", se dedica al estudio de otras (y diversas) manifestaciones dramatúrgicas de hoy: teatro breve, teatro (musical) y globalización en España, relaciones del teatro con la prensa, el cine, la televisión, la radio hasta llegar a las herramientas más actuales, las nuevas tecnologías. Un volumen, original y novedoso, que servirá, sin duda, para conocer y amar más al teatro, una actividad artística, cultural y social de tan larga y prolongada trayectoria.
