

Hes Where The Joy Is

Sir Richard Maitland, William Dunbar

He's Where the Joy Is - DVD Set Tara-Leigh Cobble, 2021-09 It's hard to know a God we don't understand, and it's hard to love a God we don't know. But our God wants to be known and loved, and He's told us a lot about Himself in the pages of His Word. Join Tara-Leigh Cobble in this 7-session study as she breaks down the intimidating doctrine of the Trinity. You'll discover a beautiful, foundational view of our Triune God that will transform how you relate to Him. Understanding God's three-in-oneness and each of the Persons of God individually--Father, Son, and Spirit--will lead you to deeper intimacy with God and greater joy in knowing Him! DVD Set Includes: 2 DVDs with 7 teaching videos, approximately 15-20 minutes per session Benefits: Discover and better understand an intimidating doctrine that is so vital to our faith. Explore the Trinity as a whole and examine the role and work of each Person of the Trinity individually. Understand how to apply the truth of who God is in the Trinity to your everyday life and how you can relate to Him. Video Sessions: Session 1: Introduction (19:14)--In the Session 1 video, Tara-Leigh sets the stage for this study by helping us understand how essential the doctrine of the Trinity is to our faith. She also takes a few moments to explain the different elements and layout of the study. Session 2: Unity & Diversity (18:32)--Tara-Leigh introduces the three foundations of the Trinity in Session 2, and she explains how God, through progressive revelation has revealed Himself to humanity--one essence but three Persons. Session 3: God the Father (21:08)--The Session 3 video focuses on God the Father. Tara-Leigh discusses how the Father relates to the Son and the Spirit inside the Trinity, and how He relates to us. She shares how God the Father has always been the Father, even before He was Creator, but that He only becomes our Father after we place faith in Jesus. Session 4: God the Son (16:08)--In Session 4, Tara-Leigh turns our attention to the second Person of the Trinity, God the Son. She emphasizes that the Son has eternally existed, but became Jesus at conception. As Jesus, the Son was fully God and fully man, and lived the perfect life and died the sacrificial death for our redemption. Session 5: God the Spirit (19:15)--The Holy Spirit is perhaps the most mysterious Person of the Trinity, He's also the focus of the Session 5 video. Tara-Leigh explains that the Spirit has also eternally existed with the Father and the Son, and that He is a He, not an inanimate power source. The Spirit is the presence of God in every believer, sanctifying us and sealing us for eternity. Session 6: Prayer & Communication (21:12)--In Session 6, Tara-Leigh shows how God is a relational God and how important it is that we communicate to Him through prayer. She states that prayer is a relational endeavor and that a key to good communication with God is seeing Him for who He really is. Session 7: In His Image (13:12)--In the closing session, Tara-Leigh shows us the beauty of the gospel, and she shares that without the Trinity, there is no gospel. She discusses how we who have been redeemed now have the responsibility to share that gospel with the world.

Early modern women and the poem Susan Wiseman, 2016-05-16 Viewing the poem as a social agent and product in women's lives, the essays in this collection examine factors influencing the relationships between writers and readers of poetry in seventeenth-century England and Scotland. The archival and theoretical research on literary authorship, textual transmission and socio-literary networks invites a re-examination of the production and reception of poetry, and alters our understanding of the way poetry participated in social, literary and political life. The volume takes account of the expansion and changes to the canon of women's poetry and emerging research on key aspects of literary production and reception. It builds on and responds to both recent critical emphasis on literary form and on archival scholarship in women's writing, understanding the two emphases to be mutually informative. This book explores the way women understood the poem, examines how the poem was shared, circulated and rewritten, and traces its path through wider social relations. It will appeal to any scholar of literature and gender working in Renaissance and seventeenth century studies.
