Lake of Fire - Hope for the Wicked One Day? - Essays in First Christianity Jonathan Ramachandran, 2019-01-01

Christ Centered Universalism has been a Hope in First Christianity among the earliest orthodox Christians as testified even as late in St. Augustine of Hippo's infamous quote in that even he didn't call them as heretics but soft hearted Christians who did not deny Holy Scripture. A form of Christian Universalism by Origen of Alexandria may have been condemned by a later council. For protestants, please take note that both St. Augustine and that later council consists of members who Pray to Virgin Mary something which is absent from even Origen of Alexandria. Therefore, just because something is majority by later early Christianity it does not necessarily mean that it was First Christianity Doctrine. In light of this, we discuss various viewpoints, quotes by Church Fathers and Ancient Christian Writings in support of this Hope. Since the time lapse and loss of records to these First Christians being replaced by later Christianity is hard to trace or prove due to scarcity of evidences, nevertheless we endeavour to present as much as we can including some rarely known quotes within Christian Universalism Hopefuls itself. An example of a set of rare quotes which point to Christ Centered Universalism in this book which may not be popularly known is that by St. Hillary of Poitiers, the Champion of Trinity in the West and a set of interesting quotes likewise by St. Ignatius of Antioch who was a direct disciple if St. John the Apostle of Christ himself. We see traces of such an understanding in a quote by St. Justin Martyr toward the Wicked being made subject to obey God eventually as one child while St. Ireneus of Lyons has a few interesting quotes especially those that relate to the Concept of Ages/Aeons/Olam to come where in a particular instance, St. Ireneus clearly shows that the strongest phrase ages of Ages refers to the subset ages out of a larger set of Ages implying limitedness. Just like God of Abraham does not limit God to Abraham only, the phrase God's Glory to the Age/Aeon/Olam (singular) need not limit God's Glory to one Age only but may be highlighting it for that Age (unknown long time period). We do not need to teach it as a 100% certain doctrine but we may hope for it as the Bible Verses can also be understood consistently to present this Hope in some Way. One Day we will know and all things are possible with God Who Alone Decides. Peace to you.

Revelations of Divine Love Of Norwich Julian,2022-05-28 In Revelations of Divine Love, Julian of Norwich presents a profound spiritual exploration that intricately weaves theological insights with deeply personal reflections. Written in the context of 14th-century mysticism, this text emerges as one of the earliest works in the English language by a woman. Through vivid imagery and the use of allegory, Julian delineates her visionary experiences of divine love and the nature of God, encapsulated in the famous notion of 'all shall be well.' Her unique contemplative style invites readers to embrace a mystical understanding of faith that transcends mere dogma, engaging with the emotional and sensory dimensions of spirituality. Julian of Norwich, a recluse and holy woman, experienced these divine revelations during a time of great social upheaval, including the Black Death, which profoundly shaped her worldview. Her writings reflect a life dedicated to contemplation and a deep understanding of Christ's suffering and love. Living in an era where women had limited opportunities for theological discourse, Julian's voice resonates with authenticity, bringing forth a radical perspective that emphasizes love over fear. This seminal work is essential for anyone interested in mysticism, medieval spirituality, or the role of women in religious thought. Julian's insights offer timeless wisdom, challenging readers to explore their own spiritual lives and to cultivate a deeper relationship with the divine. A must-read for both theological scholars and seekers alike, her profound reflections continue to inspire and illuminate the path towards understanding God's unyielding love.
