Do You Remember? Trenton Bailey, 2022-12-28 In Do You Remember? Celebrating Fifty Years of Earth, Wind & Fire, Trenton Bailey traces the humble beginning of Maurice White, his development as a musician, and his formation of Earth, Wind & Fire, a band that became a global phenomenon during the 1970s. By the early 1980s, the music industry was changing, and White had grown weary after working constantly for more than a decade. He decided to put the band on hiatus for more than three years. The band made a comeback in 1987, but White's health crisis soon forced them to tour without him. During the twenty-first century, the band has received numerous accolades and lifetime achievement and hall of fame awards. The band remains relevant today, collaborating with younger artists and maintaining their classic sound. Earth, Wind & Fire stood apart from other soul bands with their philosophical lyrics and extravagant visual art, much of which is studied in the book, including album covers, concerts, and music videos. The lyrics of hit songs are examined alongside an analysis of the band's chart success. Earth, Wind & Fire has produced twenty-one studio albums and several compilation albums. Each album is analyzed for content and quality. Earth, Wind & Fire is also known for using ancient Egyptian symbols, and Bailey thoroughly details those symbols and Maurice White's fascination with Egyptology. After enduring many personnel changes, Earth, Wind & Fire continues to perform around the world and captivate diverse audiences.

Science Fiction, Fantasy, and Politics Dan Hassler-Forest, 2016-07-21 From Tolkien to Star Trek, from Game of Thrones to Battlestar Galactica, and from The Walking Dead to Janelle Monáe's Afrofuturist concept albums, transmedia world-building offers us complex and immersive environments beyond capitalism. This book examines the ways in which these popular storyworlds offer tools for anticapitalist theory and practice. Building on Hardt and Negri's theory of global capitalism, Science Fiction, Fantasy, and Politics shows how transmedia world-building has the potential of offering more than a momentary escape from capitalist realism in the age of media convergence and participatory culture. The book features eight fantastic storyworlds that offer vivid illustrations of global capitalism's contradictory logic. Approaching transmedia world-building both as a cultural form and as a political economy, it demonstrates the limitations inherent in fandom and fan culture, which is increasingly absorbed as a form of immaterial labor. But at the same time, the book also explores the productive ways in which fantastic storyworlds contain a radical energy that can give us new ways of thinking about politics, popular culture, and anticapitalism.

The First and the Last Sona Schmidt-Harris,2025-05-28 If she could only jump from a plane, and fall through that color—fall through the cloud crevasse in which she imagined her mother temporarily dwelt—a fuchsia-lit portal growing whiter as her mother raced to her grandmother's love within a wormhole to paradise. Mid 1990s: Mormon-raised sisters Cassandra and Sarah Anderson from Holladay, Utah, find a second, exciting, and difficult home in New York City. Anorexic and withering, Sarah fights for life while Cassandra, a feisty and scrappy artist, fights to stay in its center. In part because of a seizure disorder, Cassandra is the lucky and not-so-lucky recipient of visionary experiences, often channeled into her successful exhibitions. Theodore Ascott, a tragic and sensitive heir, falls in love with Cassandra but can find no home in the refuge of art as she does. The deaths of four people and the absence of one cast a long shadow over all. With echoes of Angels in America, The First and the Last examines origins and the interplay of lives inextricably changing one another forever. Sona Schmidt-Harris is a published poet and fiction writer. As an award-winning journalist, she particularly enjoyed writing profiles of individuals. Travel writing is also in her blood. Her publication debut was in Short and Long and Even a Song, the esteemed literary journal of San Miguel Elementary School in Walnut Creek, California. In addition to Northern California, Sona lived in Salt Lake City, Utah, and as a five-year resident of New York City, she was witness to the events of 9/11 and refers to her Manhattan years as “the best of times; the worst of times.” She currently calls Lisbon, Portugal, home. After earning bachelor's degrees in psychology and English Literature, Sona's parents were happy when she did something practical by obtaining a paralegal certificate, which she used to earn the bulk of her living. Life with her willful wire fox terrier and husband in Lisbon keeps her on her toes. She continues to be awed by the mystery and grace of the Portuguese.
