Harold Bloom

The Grapes of Wrath - John Steinbeck, Updated Edition Harold Bloom, 2009 Presents a collection of critical essays on Steinbeck's The Grapes of Wrath, arranged in chronological order of publication.

The Search for Miri: A Profound Adventure of Faith Frank D. Tigue, 2024-04-01 Frank Talcott is a struggling attorney. His marriage has been very stressful due to his wife Jennifer's anxiety issues. Unexpectedly, Frank has a dream. An unknown woman appears to him. She tells Frank to follow signs that God is going to provide since drastic change is impending. She implores him that, through patience, God will provide him what he has lacked in his life. This dream motivates Frank to reassess his life's direction. Faith Elizabeth Jennings is a young woman who has experienced tragedies in her life. She had a twin who died shortly after birth. That experience was followed by the death of her beloved grandmother, Eliza Faith. As a result, she began experiencing severe depression. After her death, she finds and eventually marries her childhood sweetheart, Gabe. Her only desire was to live a simple life with Gabe who she began dating in high school. Tragedy continued incessantly. She experiences a miscarriage. After a renewed fight with depression, she gives birth to a baby boy. This event solidified the contentment of living the simple life. Unfortunately, tragedy recurs when this child develops cancer and succumbs to the scourge shortly thereafter. Finally, Gabe gets sick. He develops a brain tumor and dies. For Faith, it seems there is no way to escape impending tragedies. The stress is unimaginable. The Search for Miri: A Profound Adventure of Faith is the story of how the paths of Frank Talcott and Faith Jennings eventually intersect. Through a new profession, dreams, and unexplainable events, Frank and Faith's lives cross in an incredible way. Frank has the urgent desire to help Faith conquer her depression and be happy again. However, will all of Frank's efforts succeed or will Faith finally stumble into a great abyss of depression and sadness never to recover?

The 26th Golden Age of Science Fiction MEGAPACK ®: Homer Eon Flint Homer Eon Flint, Vella Munn, 2015-12-02 Homer Eon Flint was one of the pioneers of science fiction -- publishing science fiction stories in pulp magazines before the term science fiction had even been coined. Unfortunately, he died violently -- and mysteriously -- at age 36, leaving behind a grieving widow and three young children. Prior to his shocking end in 1924, Homer's speculative fiction made him a leading contributor to the era's top pulp magazines. Hundreds of thousands of readers thrilled to his tales of life beyond Earth as well as his mysteries, humor, and even horror. Many of the short stories in this volume, plus the short novel The Planeteer, were unpublished during Homer Eon Flint's lifetime. We are thankful to Vella Munn for allowing us to publish them alongside his more famous pulp novels and stories. Here, then, are 22 classic works plus Vella Munn's biography of her grandfather. For anyone interested in the roots of science fiction, this is a must-have volume! Angel of the L Train Penelope Marzec, 2022-08-12 Thea Ahern desperately needs a job, so when she lands a job at LetSlip, a New York City gossip magazine, she takes it even though it will mean hiding her heritage. When she helps a man who is attacked on the subway, she's hailed as the Angel of the L Train, and people notice her striking resemblance to a once famous actress. This sparks a renewed interest in Paris Hulette and her whereabouts. What happened to the award-winning actress after her husband shot her? And is Thea Ahern really the actress's daughter? Thea's coworker, John, understands what it means to hide from your past, and so he shields Thea from the ensuing media frenzy. She falls for him, and he falls for her, but LetSlip's CEO orders John to investigate Thea. Now he has to choose between protecting Thea or losing his job. When LetSlip's CEO is murdered while John is in the building, John is thrust into the public spotlight along with Thea, and his past is revealed. Can Thea ever trust him again? And can he ever be forgiven for what he's done?

My Dear Grandpa, I Want to Say... : Grief Journaling Prompts to Get the Healing Energy Flowing After the Death of a Grandfather,(Memory Book and Therapeutic Writing:Open Letter for the Bereaved) S. H Bando

Press,2020-07-06 If you have recently lost your grandfather, first: our condolences, we understand the feelings of loss. Therapeutic writing Letter This Letter allows you after losing your grandfather to express yourself freely and safely, keep all your various heart feels and thoughts organized in one easy to find a spot, It also provides you with the tools to explore within so that you can build your inner strength again, this type of writing is the most therapeutic as you have the opportunity to speak out from the heart about what you want to express. It can be especially helpful when the letter touches a sensitive issue. This journal includes: The actual letter: (here is part of the letter) Dear grandpa, I want to Say - without you is... - Since you've been gone, I find it difficult to... - If you were here now... - My favorite thing we used to do together... - Ten words that best describe you... - If I could be like you in any way, I would adopt their... - This quote reminds me of you... - Ten Things I've learned about myself since you passed away... - In the last days, I have been feeling a lot of... Note: There are more pages that contain the rest of the letter, this list is just for illustration, it is incomplete. - write out what you want to say to your grandpa, how you felt. - write down all the things you wish about will be. - writing out the plans you wish and dream to be doing with your grandfather. - write out the time you feel down or depressed for you to describe your struggles and heart hurts with the loss of your grandfather. and much more! Also, Grief Journal includes: The poetry: every time, you have a lot of space to write a poem about your grandpa, there is also a poem written that you can draw inspiration from. My Favourite memories with my grandfather: Use this place to write out your favorites memories with your grandpa. Things that will always remind me of my grandfather: this section is dedicated to putting or writing all the beautiful things that will make you remember your grandpa always {Images - Songs - Food - Quotes - Jokes - And More}. At last, whether you've just lost your grandfather, or it's been some years, hopefully, some of the changes are eventual decreases in the intensity of painful feelings and longing and decreases in the length of time grief and feel overwhelming. everyone grieves differently and within their own timeframe, the low times aren't as low and don't last as long, As time passes and we grow, we can also have new questions and insights about our losses which change the grief we experience, just let your heart and mind heal from this traumatic experience, never judge yourself in the healing process. Listen to your heart and write down everything you feel, whenever needed just write again freely.

Born Believers Justin L. Barrett,2012-03-20 Infants have a lot to make sense of in the world: Why does the sun shine and night fall; why do some objects move in response to words, while others won't budge; who is it that looks over them and cares for them? How the developing brain grapples with these and other questions leads children, across cultures, to naturally develop a belief in a divine power of remarkably consistent traits--a god that is a powerful creator, knowing, immortal, and good—explains noted developmental psychologist and anthropologist Justin L. Barrett in this enlightening and provocative book. In short, we are all born believers. Belief begins in the brain. Under the sway of powerful internal and external influences, children understand their environments by imagining at least one creative and intelligent agent, a grand creator and controller that brings order and purpose to the world. Further, these beliefs in unseen super beings help organize children's intuitions about morality and surprising life events, making life meaningful. Summarizing scientific experiments conducted with children across the globe, Professor Barrett illustrates the ways human beings have come to develop complex belief systems about God's omniscience, the afterlife, and the immortality of deities. He shows how the science of childhood religiosity reveals, across humanity, a "natural religion," the organization of those beliefs that humans gravitate to organically, and how it underlies all of the world's major religions, uniting them under one common source. For believers and nonbelievers alike, Barrett offers a compelling argument for the human instinct for religion, as he guides all parents in how to effectively encourage children in developing a healthy constellation of beliefs about the world around them.

A Comforting Word Kenn Filkins, 1994-04 What do I say to a suffering friend? I feel like I should say something but what? I have never had that experience before so how can I help them? Have you ever found yourself finding excuses that will justify your lack of encouragement to someone immersed in grief? This book will help you understand that encouraging a grieving friend may not be as difficult as we make it out to be.

The Thank You Letter Cameron Frazier, 2023-04-16 Landon has always been an introvert and certainly never been in a relationship. That is until he gets stuck doing a science project with Brooke Rose. They fall into an unorthodox friendship which gradually morphs into something more. Will Landon ruin it all, or will he blossom in this new found relationship

The Philosopher King Heath Carpenter, 2019-06-01 Texas-born T Bone Burnett is an award-winning musician, songwriter, and producer with over forty years of experience in the entertainment industry. In The Philosopher King, Heath Carpenter evaluates and positions Burnett as a major cultural catalyst by grounding his work, and that of others abiding by a similar roots ethic, in the American South. Carpenter examines select artistic productions created by Burnett to understand what they communicate about the South and southern identity. He also extends his analysis to artists, producers, and cultural tastemakers who operate by an ethic and aesthetic similar to Burnett's, examining the interests behind the preservationist/heritage movement in contemporary roots music and how this community contributes to ongoing conversations regarding modern southern identity. The Philosopher King explores these artistic connections, the culture in which they reside, and most specifically the role T Bone Burnett plays in a contemporary cultural movement that seeks to represent a traditional American music ethos in distinctly Southern terms. Carpenter looks at films, songs, soundtracks, studio albums, fashion, and performances, each loaded with symbols, archetypes, and themes that illuminate the intersection between past and present issues of identity. By weaving together ethnographic interviews with cultural analysis, Carpenter investigates how relevant social issues are being negotiated, how complicated discussions of history, tradition, and heritage feed the ethic, and how the American South as a perceived distinct region factors into the equation.

Uncultured Daniella Mestyanek Young, 2022-09-20 A painful and propulsive memoir delivered in the honest tones of a woman who didn't always think she'd live to tell her story. —The New York Times A BuzzFeed Best Book of September In the vein of Educated and The Glass Castle, Daniella Mestyanek Young's Uncultured is more than a memoir about an exceptional upbringing, but about a woman who, no matter the lack of tools given to her, is determined to overcome. Behind the tall, foreboding gates of a commune in Brazil, Daniella Mestyanek Young was raised in the religious cult The Children of God, also known as The Family, as the daughter of high-ranking members. Her great-grandmother donated land for one of The Family's first communes in Texas. Her mother, at thirteen, was forced to marry the leader and served as his secretary for many years. Beholden to The Family's strict rules, Daniella suffers physical, emotional, and sexual abuse—masked as godly discipline and divine love—and is forbidden from getting a traditional education. At fifteen years old, fed up with The Family and determined to build a better and freer life for herself, Daniella escapes to Texas. There, she bravely enrolls herself in high school and excels, later graduating as valedictorian of her college class, then electing to join the military to begin a career as an intelligence officer, where she believes she will finally belong. But she soon learns that her new world—surrounded by men on the sands of Afghanistan—looks remarkably similar to the one she desperately tried to leave behind. Told in a beautiful, propulsive voice and with clear-eyed honesty, Uncultured explores the dangers unleashed when harmful group mentality goes unrecognized, and is emblematic of the many ways women have to contort themselves to survive.

Ethnic Identity, Social Mobility and the Role of Soulmates Marieke Sloom, 2018-09-21 Based on a study among higher-educated adult children of lower-class Turkish and Moroccan immigrants in the Netherlands, this open access book explores processes of identification among social climbers with ethnic minority backgrounds. Using both survey data and open interviews with these 'minority climbers', the study details the contextual and temporal nature of identification. The results illustrate how ethnicity is contextual but have tangible and inescapable effects at the same time. Also the findings call for a more reflexive use of terms like ethnic ingroup/outgroup and bonding/bridging. Overall, the book helps us understand the emergence of middle-class segments that articulate their minority identities and as such it will be of great interest to academics, policy makers and all those interested in processes of integration and/or diversity.

Zines in Third Space Adela C. Licona, 2012-10-31 Zines in Third Space develops third-space theory with a practical engagement in the subcultural space of zines as alternative media produced specifically by feminists and queers of color. Adela C. Licona explores how borderlands rhetorics function in feminist and queer of-color zines to challenge dominant knowledges as well as normativizing mis/representations. Licona characterizes these zines as third-space sites of borderlands rhetorics revealing dissident performances, disruptive rhetorical acts, and coalitions that effect new cultural, political, economic, and sexual configurations.

Bloodland Dennis McAuliffe, 1999 Murder mystery, family memoir and spiritual journey combined, this story unearths family secrets and ultimately exposes a systematic murder plot.
