Correct use of lie or lay in the following context Jul 30, 2014 · I based my final year project around web technologies where my strengths lie. OR I based my final year project around web technologies where my strengths lay. what is the difference between everywhere and anywhere Open for “anyone”? Or open for “everyone”? Difference between “anyone” and “everyone”? What is the difference between “anyone” and “everyone” in this context This previous question may also be of interest (although it doesn't discuss the word anywhere): His camera accompanied him everywhere/wherever he went in the world. The variants starting 'wherever' etc would probably be more usually used. Does this sentence exemplify an adverbial clause? The sentence can be altered in many different ways and maintain the same propositions. E.g., "In going wherever, she leaves an item of luggage behind." "Wherever" is the place that she is "going," and this first clause is certainly dependent, but I don't think that it is adverbial whatsoever; no adverbs exist in the entire sentence. orthography - Why is it "wherever" instead of "whereever"? The popular question words how, when, what, why, which and some more all have their accompanying word ending in -ever, like however and whatever. It seems to me that the word wherever is somewhat Using "TM" for trademarked term - every time or just once? A better choice is to substitute a generic term when available. Although the symbols ® and ™ (for registered and unregistered trademarks, respectively) often accompany trademark names on product packaging and in promotional material, there is no legal
