The Concise Dictionary of Foreign Quotations Anthony Lejeune, 2001 First Published in 2002. Routledge is an imprint of Taylor & Francis, an informa company.

They Never Said It Paul F. Boller Jr., John George, 1990-06-14 Abraham Lincoln never said, You cannot fool all the people all the time. Thomas Jefferson never said, That government is best which governs least. And Horace Greeley never said, Go west, young man. In They Never Said It, Paul F. Boller, Jr. and John George examine hundreds of misquotations, incorrect attributions, and blatant fabrications, outlining the origins of the quotes and revealing why we should consign them to the historical trashcan. Many of the misquotes are quite harmless. Some are inadvertent misquotes that have become popular (Shakespeare actually said, The best part of valor is discretion), others, the inventions of reporters embellishing a story (Franklin Roosevelt never opened a speech to a DAR group with the salutation, My fellow immigrants). But some of the quotes, such as Charles Darwin's supposed deathbed recantation of evolution, falsify the historical record with their blatant dishonesty. And other chillingly vicious ones, filled with virulent racial and religious prejudices, completely distort the views of the person supposedly quoted and spread distrust and hatred among the gullible. These include the forged remarks attributed to Benjamin Franklin that Jews should be excluded from America and the fabricated condemnation of Catholics attributed to Lincoln. An entertaining and thought-provoking book, They Never Said It covers a great deal of history and sets it right. Going beyond a mere catalog of popular misconceptions, Boller and George reveal how rightists and leftists, and atheists and evangelists all have at times twisted and even invented the words of eminent figures to promote their own ends. The ultimate debunking reference, it perfectly complements handbooks of quotations.

The Quote Verifier Ralph Keyes, 2007-04-01 Our language is full of hundreds of quotations that are often cited but seldom confirmed. Ralph Keyes's The Quote Verifier considers not only classic misquotes such as Nice guys finish last, and Play it again, Sam, but more surprising ones such as Ain't I a woman? and Golf is a good walk spoiled, as well as the origins of popular sayings such as The opera ain't over till the fat lady sings, No one washes a rented car, and Make my day. Keyes's in-depth research routinely confounds widespread assumptions about who said what, where, and when. Organized in easy-to-access dictionary form, The Quote Verifier also contains special sections highlighting commonly misquoted people and genres, such as Yogi Berra and Oscar Wilde, famous last words, and misremembered movie lines. An invaluable resource for not just those with a professional need to quote accurately, but anyone at all who is interested in the roots of words and phrases, The Quote Verifier is not only a fascinating piece of literary sleuthing, but also a great read.

Incredible Quotations Jacqueline Sweeney, 1997 Celebrate and learn from the remarkable words of Abe Lincoln, Amelia Earhart, Rosa Parks, Michael Jordan, Ghandi, Anne Frank, Beethoven, Aesop, and so many more. This very special resource features 230 quotations along with ready-to-use prompts that invite students to think, write, discuss, and debate. Topics range from courage to humor, values to leadership. A great way to encourage journal writing! For use with Grades 4-8.

Quotationary - The A-Z Book of Quotations Nasser Amiri, 2024-06-27 Compiled over many years by Nasser Amiri, this is by far the most comprehensive collection ever compiled of carefully selected quotations from the world's great philosophers, writers, historians, musicians and thinkers. Quotationary is a source of inspiration for every writer, book-lover and thinker. Oxford Dictionary of Humorous Quotations Ned Sherrin, 2008-09-25 This hilarious collection of humorous quotations, full of wisecracks and wit, snappy comments and inspired fantasy, has been specially compiled by the late broadcaster and raconteur Ned Sherrin, with a foreword by leading British satirist, Alistair Beaton. Now packed with even more quotes and covering more subjects than before, from Weddings to the Supernatural, Australia to Headlines. Find the best lines from your favourite jokesters and wordsmiths, add that extra something to a speech or presentation, or just enjoy a good laugh. 'A chair is a piece of furniture. I am not a chair because no one has ever sat on me.' Ann Widdecombe on the announcement that Parliamentary language will now be gender-neutral. 'No wonder Bob Geldof is such an expert on famine. He's been feeding off 'I don't like Mondays' for 30 years.' Russell Brand On deciding to run for governor of California: 'The most difficult decision I've ever made in my entire life, except for the one in 1978 when I decided to get a bikini wax.' Arnold Schwarzenegger 'Wanting to know an author because you like his work is like wanting to know a duck because you like p-acirc--;t-eacute--;.' Margaret Atwood 'I am so sorry. We have to stop there. I have just come to the end of my personality.' Quentin Crisp, closing down an interview

They Said It First ,

Oxford Dictionary of Humorous Quotations Gyles Brandreth, 2013-10-17 Writer, broadcaster, and wit Gyles Brandreth has completely revised Ned Sherrin's classic collection of wisecracks, one-liners, and anecdotes. Add sparkle to your speeches and presentations, or just enjoy a good laugh in company with Oscar Wilde, Mark Twain, Joan Rivers, Kathy Lette, Frankie Boyle, and friends.

Bicycling Home Virginia Mudd, 2014-07-01 Desperate to be free of a terrifying food addiction and driven by a terrible longing to find God, whomever and whatever that meant, Virginia began a ten-year journey that covered more than 10,000 miles by bicycle and countless inner miles of self-discovery and transformation. Her search takes her from a well-ordered, happy married life into divorce, chaos, confusion and despair—and ultimately to the unexpected and profound answer to her quest. This story follows a modern-day seeker as she bicycles her way—alone on back roads and in long distance races—all the way home, where she finds herself as she finds the God she is seeking.

The Courage to Be Disliked: 16 World Political Leaders Who Forged Better Nations Through Unpopular Decisions Andrea Febrian, In an era obsessed with popularity, what if true leadership demands the exact opposite? What if the decisions that saved nations, redefined societies, and changed the course of history were, at the time, met with fury, ridicule, and a profound backlash? The Courage to Be Disliked delves into this compelling paradox, revealing the untold stories of 16 world political leaders who dared to defy public opinion. This isn't just a history book; it's a gripping collection of short stories, each a masterclass in statesmanship and the sheer courage required to steer a nation through its darkest hours. Discover leaders who possessed the extraordinary political will to make unpopular decisions for a higher, long-term purpose. From the battlefields of global conflict to the quiet desperation of economic stagnation, these individuals prioritized principle over approval, embracing personal sacrifice and immense political risk for the sake of their nations. You'll witness Abraham Lincoln's unwavering conviction during the Civil War, defying popular sentiment to forge a new Union. Feel the defiant resolve of Winston Churchill, who stood alone against a chorus of appeasement, preparing Britain for the fight of its life. Marvel at Charles de Gaulle's profound courage in granting Algerian independence, betraying his initial supporters to save France from endless colonial war. Each compelling narrative illuminates a critical moment of crisis management, where these leaders navigated the treacherous waters of geopolitics and domestic unrest. You'll see how Lee Kuan Yew's strict social policies ignited an economic transformation that built modern Singapore, and how Mikhail Gorbachev's radical reforms ushered in social change that dismantled an empire, albeit at great personal cost. These are tales of strategic leadership that demanded incredible resilience in the face of widespread dissent and intense polarization. Through their gripping journeys, you'll uncover the secrets behind their decision making process and the profound moral clarity that guided them. We reveal how their unwavering conviction and sheer defiance paved the way for monumental reform and successful nation-building. Ultimately, their choices, once reviled, earned historical vindication, creating enduring legacy and immense global impact that led to the modernization of their countries. The Courage to Be Disliked is more than a historical account; it's an indispensable guide for anyone seeking to understand what true leadership entails. It will challenge your perceptions of power, popularity, and progress, urging you to consider whether the loudest voices are always the wisest. Prepare to be inspired by the extraordinary individuals who dared to be disliked, and in doing so, shaped a better world for us all.

And I Quote, Revised Edition Ashton Applewhite, Tripp Evans, Andrew Frothingham, 2003-03-19 The popular guide to quotable quotes returns in a totally revised and updated edition including all-new material.

Super Searchers Do Business Mary Ellen Bates, 1999 Bates, who does the same sort of work, interviews 11 researchers who use the Internet and online services to find critical business information. States and Power Richard Lachmann, 2013-04-29 States over the past 500 years have become the dominant institutions on Earth, exercising vast and varied authority over the economic well-being, health, welfare, and very lives of their citizens. This concise and engaging book explains how power became centralized in states at the expense of the myriad of other polities that had battled one another over previous millennia. Richard Lachmann traces the contested and historically contingent struggles by which subjects began to see themselves as citizens of nations and came to associate their interests and identities with states, and explains why the civil rights and benefits they achieved, and the taxes and military service they in turn rendered to their nations, varied so much. Looking forward, Lachmann examines the future in store for states: will they gain or lose strength as they are buffeted by globalization, terrorism, economic crisis and environmental disaster? This stimulating book offers a comprehensive evaluation of the social science literature that addresses these issues and situates the state at the center of the world history of capitalism, nationalism and democracy. It will be essential reading for scholars and students across the social and political sciences.

Around the World in (More Than) 80 Days Larry Alex Taunton ,2020-10-20 A battle rages for the heart and soul of America. For one group, the idea of “American Exceptionalism” is dead. Some never tire of lecturing us about how out-of-step America is with the rest of the world and how she needs to get with it. Worse, America, they say, is bad for the world. Her freedom and prosperity are merely historical accidents. Of course, this narrative presupposes there are better places in the world to live. Are there? Were Alec Baldwin to leave the country permanently as he once promised, where would he go?

Contemporary Thought and Politics Earnest Gellner,2004-11-23 Gellner's political philosophy in these volumes combines the down-to-earth realism of political sociology with a rational treatment of the normative issues of traditional political thought. In these essays Gellner strives to understand the religions of nationalism, communism and democracy, returning again and again to the basic values of the liberal: social tolerance, rational criticism, human decency and justice.

The Discovery of the Third World Christoph Kalter,2016-09-12 An innovative account of how the concept of the 'Third World' emerged in France from the mid-1950s through to the mid-1970s alongside a new leftist movement. The book reveals how, in an age of Cold War, decolonization and development thinking, French activists rose to prominence within the political Left, established transnational contacts, and developed a new global consciousness. Using the 'Third World' concept to reinvigorate anticolonial solidarity, they supported the Algerian FLN, the Cuban Revolution, and the liberation movements in Vietnam and Portuguese Africa. Insisting on the postcolonial character of France after the end of empire, they promoted new forms of cooperation with developing countries and immigrant workers. Examining the work of French leftists in publications such as Partisans, parties such as the PSU, and associations like the CEDETIM, Kalter sheds new light on a crucial moment in France's history, the global contexts that prompted it, and its worldwide ramifications.
