La Fabrique Du Pré Francis Ponge,1979 The making of the Pré is the culmination of Francis Ponge's loving struggle with language. To say that this work is just a text with illustrations, or simply a notebook of preliminary sketches leading to a final poem, or to call it merely a self-demonstrating development of a thought process, a hymn of praise, or an essay on the way that language represents objects and emotions would be insufficient. -- Introduction.

La fabrique du texte à l'épreuve de la génétique Olga Anokhina,Fatiha Idmhand,Collectif,2018 Par la variété des corpus et des analyses qu'il propose, cet ouvrage renouvelle l'approche génétique des textes littéraires et témoigne d'un intérêt toujours croissant pour cette discipline dans différents pays du monde. Il montre que le passage au numérique, en s'intensifiant, n'est pas incompatible avec une attention grandissante envers les recherches sur l'élaboration des œuvres. En plus de quelques études génétiques classiques, les contributions soulignent le rôle important de la correspondance des créateurs, réinterrogent le lien entre genèse et mise en scène, et sondent la profondeur des opérations génétiques. Ce panorama conduit le lecteur dans le monde fascinant de la création littéraire, en lui révélant quelques-uns de ses secrets intimes.

Rumeur de la fabrique du monde Christian Doumet,2004 Alterne des considérations sur la marche du monde, des rencontres avec des amis, des écrivains ou des inconnus, et des écoutes ou exercices de musique : humour, colère, regard aigu, retour sur soi, célébration des beaux instants. Avec des développements sur, notamment, le monde de l'édition et les librairies. Au tout début, une réflexion sur le pull-over de J. Roubaud.

Production and Consumption in the Low Countries, 13th-16th Centuries Raymond van Uytven,2024-10-28 The subject of this volume is the relationship between production and consumption, considered not only as the supply and demand sides of economic life, but within the broader context of the societies of the Low Countries between the 12th and the 16th centuries. Amongst the topics covered are the reality of the so-called 'late medieval depression', comparisons between the great merchant cities of Bruges and Antwerp, and the actual importance of the trade in art and luxury goods. One group of articles then looks in detail at the cloth industry, which remained the mainstay of the region's wealth, and the effects upon it of changes in technology and in fashion, while the volume concludes with two studies specially translated from Dutch, on wine and beer consumption.
