Human Values Bijibilla Rama Rao,2024-10-19 Human values are utmost important. We need to nourish ourselves on our own in every step of our journey in this universe. Our life is our experience. We are the best teachers for ourselves. Self reflection, positive attitude, wisdom, self evaluation, self appreciation helps to inspire and empower us and others as well. Network is net worth. Togetherness gives strength. It creates team spirit. Love and kindness allows us to reach more people to express our views with others to share and care. Sharing is caring. Knowledge should be shared but not stored. It is not a commodity to buy in open market. Community growth is our own growth. Live and let live is the best policy. Help ever hurt never is the way of living. Be as human and behave as human being. Have patience. Wait for an opportunity. Every day is a new opportunity. Global warming is a threat to all of us. Climate change is an indication to diminish the quality of air in environment. Environment protection is our prime objective. We pray Almighty in the form of Mother Nature in different ways. Let us respect it to give space on this earth for future generations to live joyfully and peacefully. It is our duty and primary responsibility as responsible citizens of this great universe. Show your gratitude towards Almighty, living things, mother Nature, above all yourself. Unless you love yourself you can't love others. Believe! Belief gives ability, awareness, peace and prosperity. Discipline is the root cause of everything.

Healing After a Loved One's Demise and Overcoming Grief Through Daily Meditations J.D. Rockefeller, 2015-12-03 There is nothing more painful than losing someone you dearly love. Loss is a fact of life and no one can ever take control of this, but no one can also deny that it makes the lives of people left behind sad and miserable. It's hard to cling on to happy memories with a loved one when they are still alive, so it would just be a natural reaction to mourn for their physical absence. Knowing that your loved one already left you behind can be unbearable, but you have to remember that though his or her life ended, your life needs to continue. The negative emotions are given after someone's demise but it is not right to embrace sadness for the rest of your life. Healing after a loss is highly possible. It just takes positive attitude and determination to overcome the pain and grief so that everyone will continue to live and be happy. If you do not know when and where to start healing your heart and its wounds, read on as this book was written to guide you as you walk through and finally overcome the dark phase of your life. Here, you will discover ways on how to overcome your grief through daily meditations and many other helpful ways.

The Polyphony of Life Andreas Pangritz, 2019-10-25 This fascinating book, which explores an intriguing idea formulated by Dietrich Bonhoeffer in the very last months of his life, has up until now been available only to German readers. Since Polyphonie des Lebens first appeared twenty-five years ago, a whole new generation of scholars has come into contact, in English as well as in the original German, with the entire collection of his works, as well as with a huge body of Bonhoeffer studies that have provided an exhaustive assessment of the man and his theology. But now with this brand new English edition of a book that explores a neglected but significant aspect of his life, readers may be surprised to discover how Bonhoeffer's interest in music influenced him--he seriously considered becoming a professional musician as a teenager, but chose the path of theology instead--and that not only did music provide him with a rich inner world of solace during his daily life while confined in Tegel Prison during 1943 and 1944, but music also lent him a remarkable metaphor for the fragmentary nature of life itself. In Polyphony of Life Andreas Pangritz explores Bonhoeffer's musical development and its impact on his theology and so fills in an important gap in the record of Bonhoeffer's life and thought.
